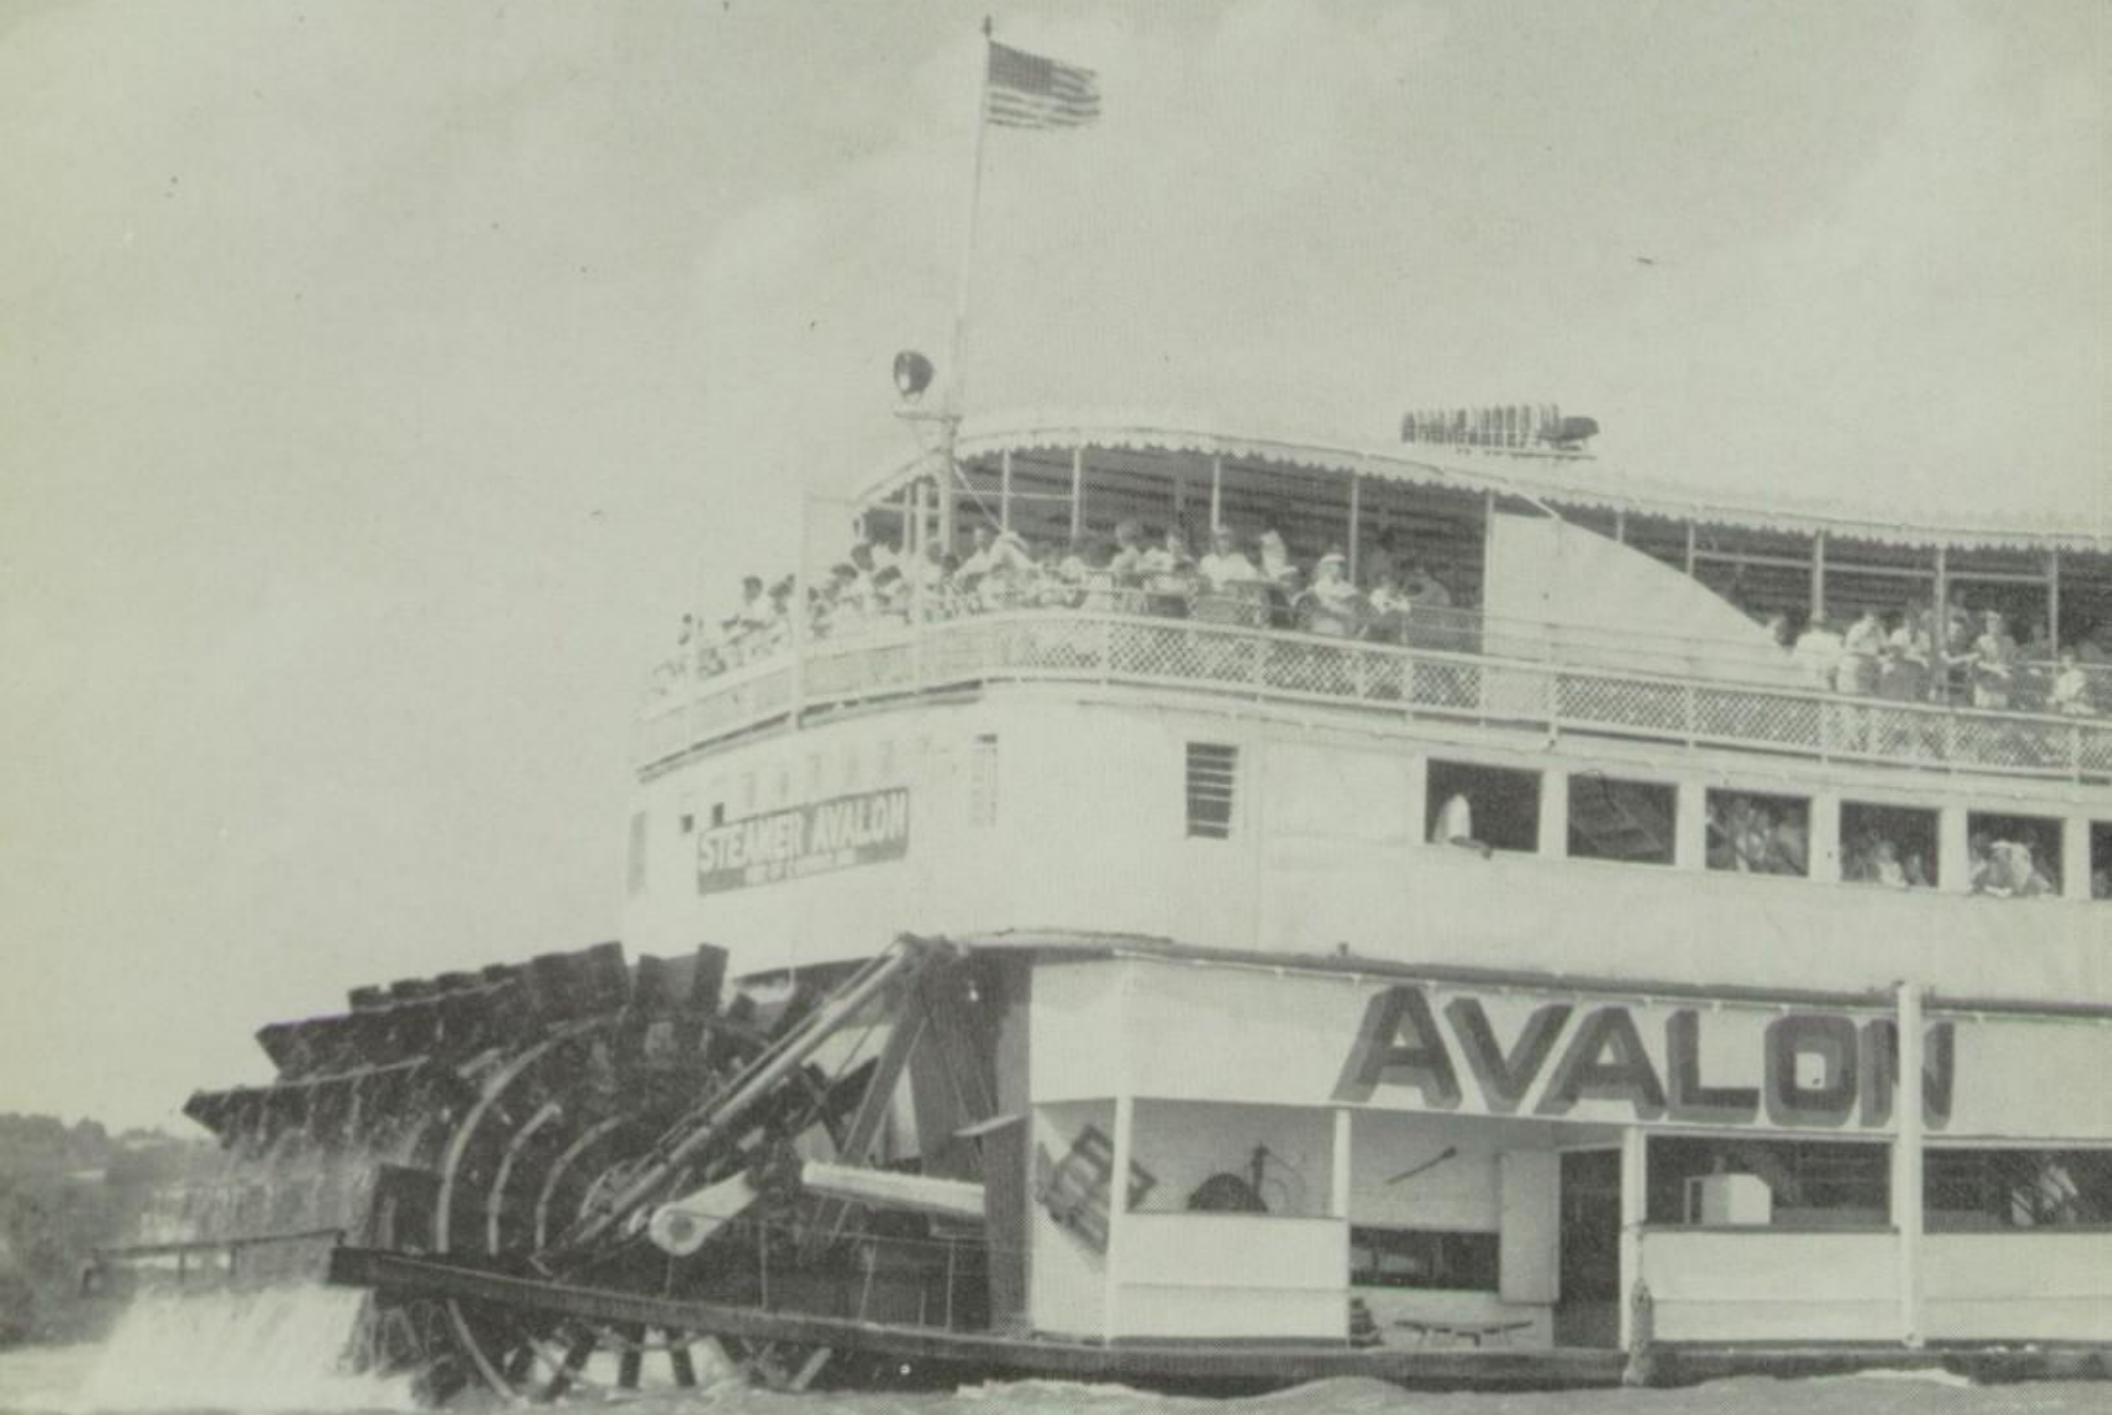
FOREWORD



The Illinois River has long offered its advantages to the settlers of this area. The first settlers, a tribe of Indians called the Peorias, founded a village on Lake Peoria. Later the French explorers established Fort Creve Coeur which led to a permanent American settlement in 1819. The River offered to these people a means of transportation, a constant supply of water, and a source of energy for their future industries.

Today, the river is a vital part of all our lives; it brings trade and commerce as well as recreation and beauty to our city. With the coming of the St. Lawrence Sea Way, transportation will be greatly improved and business will have a new outlet. The River offers recreational facilities for swimming, boating, skiing, and fishing. Many people enjoy its scenic view.

This then, "The River," is the theme for our 1959-60 Amulet. We hope to show you not only what an important part the river plays in our lives, but how we can learn from it as we compare it to our daily living. As the river flows toward the sea, it can be calm and complacent, ruffled and rough; but it will not stop. It has a goal to reach and nothing can detain it for long. Each of us also, has a goal. Some are higher than others, and some are more important; but we all have an aim in life for which we are striving. Our years here at LCHS help us to attain our goals. Just as the river is fed by the streams and creeks, so are our lives enriched by the experiences we have during the school year. We, of the Yearbook Staff, hope we have portrayed well our theme, "The River."

DEDICATION

We, the students of Limestone, humbly dedicate this 1959-60 Yearbook to a lady who has so unselfishly dedicated her life to us. Throughout the year it is her job to teach and provide us with music. This she does skillfully and cleverly, devoting much more than her required time so that we might become better acquainted with music and the opportunities it offers.

Everyone talks about school spirit but not many people do anything about it. This is one of the many things our whole student body has to thank this lively lady for. When loyalty lags, she appears before us as a reminder that we are becoming dead weight instead of backing our school as we should. She is seen at every athletic event it is possible for her to attend, and just the sight of her boosts school spirit tremendously.

To show the appreciation we feel for the interest she takes in us, we dedicate our 1960 Amulet to Mrs. Elizabeth Krumpe. In the years to come may she have this dedication as a remembrance of the gratitude we feel for her.

THE PRINCIPAL SPEAKS

TO THE STUDENTS:

The Illinois River, the theme of this yearbook, is the largest and most important water route in Illinois. It has influenced the lives of man for centuries and will continue to do so. It is our hope that, as the river has always contributed to the welfare of mankind, Limestone High School will also benefit all those who have attended here.

A river usually has as its source a spring, and as it flows on it continues to increase in size. It is our sincere hope that Limestone High School has been the "spring" in your life and that you will continue to gain in knowledge as the years go by.

OFFICE STAFF AIDS IN OPERATION OF LCHS

Agnes Smick, Peggy Tjarks, and Adeline Rosenbohm.

Agnes Smick, Peggy Tjarks, and Adeline Rosenbohm are three very familiar faces around Limestone. Agnes Smick, besides keeping track of all the absentees, operates the book store where the students purchase their supplies. Peggy operates the switchboard and is the office receptionist. Adeline has many important jobs: she is official bookkeeper, private secretary to Mr. Leach, and she takes care of all the payrolls.

The office assistants play an important part in keeping the school running efficiently. Sending notes to the students, going on errands for the teachers, taking the absent list to the rooms, and operating the ditto machine are but a few of their many jobs. These girls gain valuable experience in office routine for their future careers.

The complicated task of keeping records has been simplified by the addition of the billing machine. Nancy Keith aids Adeline in bringing the ledgers up to date.

OFFICE ASSISTANTS

B. Rakestraw, J. Grace, A. Tyler, B. Ramsey, M. Weachter, N. Smith, W. Skinner, C. Cox, N. Keith, P. Crociani, S. Shackelford, G. Bender, B. Pearson, B. Langanis, and C. Lewis.

COUNSELING SERVICES BENEFIT STUDENTS

Few people realize the long hours and the variety of work done by the Guidance Department. These people plan for, administer, and score the many tests which we take each year. The results of these tests are used in individual conferences for the purpose of planning school courses, deciding vocational plans, choosing a college, and discussing many other problems. Through their efforts, the benefits of Career and College Days are brought to the students of LCHS.

Jack Clinton, Jean Risen, Gloria Schmidt, and Frank Bailey.

An important task facing Seniors is the selection of a college. Kaethe Kruse and Mr. Jack Clinton consult the college guide to learn more about college requirements.

COUNSELING ASSISTANTS

Carol Penn, Genny Neyrinck, Evelyn Grafelman, Rosemary Copeland, and Carol Bailey.

The girls below are the counselors' able assistants. They choose to give up their study hall to help in many ways. Among their many jobs are: to do typing and filing, to make appointments and deliver appointment slips to the class rooms, and to act as receptionists. To sum it all up, these girls are "Jacquelines of all trades."

RICHARD INGRAM
General Science, Biology

A majority of the men faculty enjoy sports and Mr. Dick Ingram is no exception. Sports of every kind are popular with him as proved by the fact that he officiates at many of LCHS games. A Christmas present that adds variety to his recreation is his new hi-fi set, which he enjoys with his family.

Mr. Kenneth Storm spends his hours away from school collecting stamps and keeping up a foreign correspondence. His knowledge of biology is apparent in his home by the many beautiful plants he raises. He also takes part in his wife's hobby of weaving rugs for their home.

KENNETH STORM
Biology

HI-FI RATES HIGH

KENNETH OSWALD
General Science

Mr. Ken Oswald is the hardy, athletic type science instructor. Besides sports, he enjoys fishing and hunting. Being a conscientious hunter, Mr. Oswald frequently disassembles his gun for inspection and cleaning. He also spends free time bowling, reading, and listening to good music with his family.

FRANK BAILEY
General Science

Mr. Frank Bailey, another of our faculty in the process of home-building, is busily finishing the interior of his home. Unknown to many, one of his hobbies is playing the piano for his own enjoyment. Bowling, golfing, and reading also rank high on Mr. Bailey's list of entertainment.

This summer on a crowded golf course, it is very likely that you will run into Mr. Jerry Wyzlic, an ardent golf fan. Golfing could become more than a hobby since he has won two tournaments already. His dream vacation would be spending a month in Arizona. When not on the golf course, he enjoys good movies.

JERRY WYZLIC
Chemistry, Physics

LOIS MASON
English I, U.S. History

FLASH! PREDICTION! MRS. LOIS MASON WILL BE THE FIRST WOMAN TO REACH THE MOON BY PRIVATE PLANE! This summer she is planning to take flying lessons (her husband has other ideas). Mrs. Mason's imagination doesn't stop there, but goes on to higher stakes—to be PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

A variety of hobbies and interests keep Mrs. Elaine Sommerfield from ever becoming bored with life. Reading and playing the piano are her favorite indoor pastimes. When the weather permits, she and her husband enjoy archery and target practicing. It is rumored that she is a good shot, too.

ELAINE SOMMERFIELD
English I, General Math

IN TEACHERS' EYES

Mrs. Walker enjoys a variety of activities when she is away from the "hub-bub" of school life. She is very interested in dramatics and attends many plays and musicals in the Peoria area. At home, caring for her dog, decorating her beautiful new home, and landscaping her yard require a great deal of time.

MARY MARGARET WALKER
English III, IV

CARYL STEWART
English II

Mrs. Caryl Stewart shares her interest in dramatics with her husband, Bob. During their college days, they were both very active in the Bradley theater. For relaxation at home, Mrs. Stewart selects her favorite record for he hi-fi and settles back to read a good book.

Mrs. Gloria Schmidt is an example of today's modern working wife. She divides her time between her home and her school work. Her interests at home include reading, cooking, and collecting salt and pepper shakers. She and her husband travel to many famous spots during the summer.

GLORIA SCHMIDT
English III

PATRICIA HELMS
Home Economics I

Miss Patricia Helms, a commuter from Metamora, has recently invested in a 1960 Karmen Ghia. Being interested in cub scouting, she is den mother for the Abbot Center pack. She is also an excellent seamstress and makes much of her own clothing. Any other spare time is spent caring for her pet cats.

Moss Avenue has received a new resident! Mr. William Morse, his wife and little girl, have recently moved into a beautiful, old mansion on that street. For hobbies, Mr. Morse devoted a lot of leisure to stamp collecting and wood-working. On summer evenings, he enjoys a workout on the tennis courts.

WILLIAM MORSE

TRAVEL REVEALS NEW

ELIZABETH KRUMPE
Choral Music

Mrs. Elizabeth Krumpe, our talented music director, keeps a very busy schedule. She is the organist at Arcadia Presbyterian Church and choir director at Bethel Lutheran. Mrs. Krumpe and her husband travel quite a bit, and, as a hobby, she collects teacups from places of interest. At left, she admires her souvenirs.

CLARA McCRAITH
Home Economics II, III, IV

Mrs. Clara McCraith enjoys improving her home and aiding the well-being of her husband and three children. Her hobbies are those of a typical housewife; making clothing for herself and family, cooking, and baking. As a recent project, Mrs. McCraith is knitting Santa Claus faces for door knobs in her home.

Mrs. Ann Clinton likes to rough it in the out-of-doors. One of the experiences she enjoyed most was a month's camping trip to Canada with her husband. Back home, the Clintons enjoy attending auctions and Peoria Players. She also devotes a great deal of time to her son, Randy.

ANN CLINTON
Home Economics I, II

ERMA MEINDL
American Problems, Geography

Mrs. Meindl seems to be a perfect housewife, liking cooking and sewing. At left, she is in the process of making a sport coat for her husband. She also enjoys traveling which gives her the chance to practice her photography. Mrs. Meindl has taken many colored pictures of places they have visited.

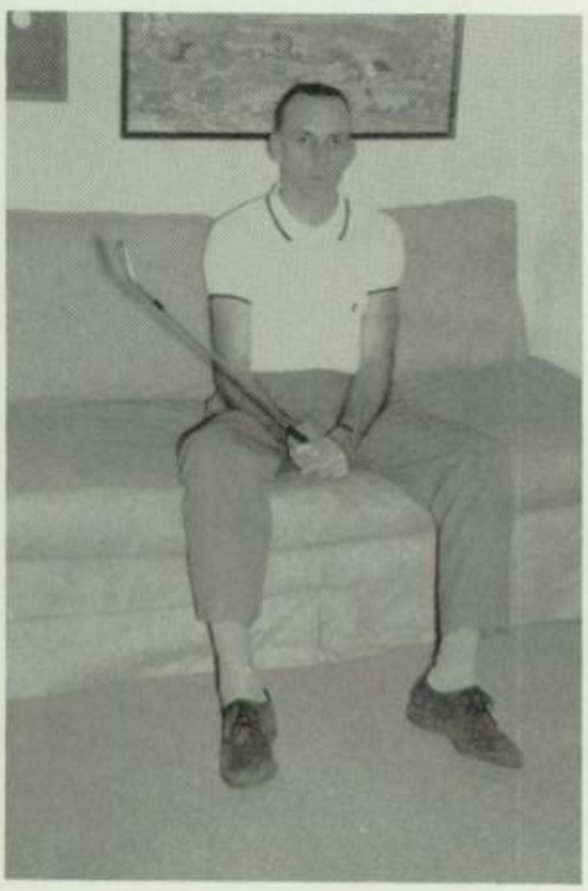
A first year teacher at LCHS, Mr. Bruce Boyle, is a graduate of Springfield Lamphier High and Normal University. Mr. Boyle is an avid sports fan and enjoys participating in, as well as watching, all kinds of sports. At present he is hard at work on his Masters degree at Bradley University.

BRUCE BOYLE
American Problems, Math

HORIZONS AND INTERESTS

A very active teacher experiencing his first year at LCHS is Mr. Conrad Hopp. His first important interest outside of school is his young son, Conrad Jr. He enjoys teaching his youngster to read and recite. Also, much of Mr. Hopp's leisure time is spent enjoying dramatic presentations by Peoria Players.

CONRAD HOPP
Speech, English II



ED HERZOG
U.S. History

Mr. Ed Herzog is anxiously looking forward to summer so that he can begin work on his garden and spend his spare time at the golf course. He and his son, Mark, spend many hours in their backyard shooting baskets. With this private coaching perhaps Mark will soon become a basketball star.

Our efficient librarian, Mrs. Meeker, strives to improve and enlarge our library even during her free hours. In the picture she is shown in the process of ordering new books. Among her other leisure activities that rank high on her list are cooking, sewing, and watching TV with her teen-age daughter.

BERNADINE MEEKER

INDUSTRIOUS TEACHERS

FRED REINHOLDT
Drawing I, II, III

A former Bradley basketball player, Mr. Fred Reinholt, has further pursued his interest in sports through coaching. He has recently moved his family into a new home which he himself designed and built. This summer, Mr. Reinholdt will have more time to spend with his hobby of fishing.

An unusual hobby that earns money for Mr. Joe Wilkerson is a small printing press in the basement of his home. On it he prints all types of programs for organizations and school dances. At present, Mr. Wilkerson's main interest is putting the final touches on his new modern home.

JOSEPH WILKERSON
Handcrafts, Wood II, Electricity I

JOSEPH McCRAITH
Wood I, II, III

Mr. Joseph McCraith, following his vocation outside of school, is a do-it-yourself fan. He uses his knowledge of wood-working to make his home more attractive. For relaxation and enjoyment, the family listens to their favorite sound tracks from movies. Mr. McCraith and his two sons find Scouting an interesting pastime.

EUGENE GIRE
Metal I, II, III

Mr. Eugene Gire spends his leisure time reading up on all the many sports he is interested in. Being such a sports fan, Mr. Gire offers his services as announcer at the football and basketball games. While at home, his four children seem to dominate his time.

Mr. Paul Malmgren, a family man, enjoys Sunday trips and cook-outs with his family. With his slide camera he captures the many good times they have had together and the interesting places that they have visited. He also enjoys attending agriculture events and fishing.

PAUL MALMGREN
Agriculture, General Science

JEAN RISEN
Shorthand, Secretarial Training

Miss Jean Risen is one of the few women on our faculty who enjoys photography for a hobby. She takes colored slides while on vacation trips. She has many beautiful remembrances of her trip to South America. Miss Risen appreciates fine music and she spends much leisure time listening to her hi-fi set.

Mr. John Morrisey's main interest revolves around his daughter Elizabeth Ann. She keeps him quite busy changing diapers and fixing bottles. When the baby doesn't have his attention, he sneaks a television program into his evening or listens to records from his collection.

JOHN MORRISEY
Bookkeeping, General Business

EXHIBIT NEW HOMES

No, it isn't Tom Sawyer! It's none other than perky Mrs. Rosemary Lynn of our Business department. Weekends and during the summer vacation you'll find her basking in the sun along a river bank enjoying her favorite pastime, fishing. Her fish stories are not all imagination either; she has pictures to prove them.

ROSEMARY LYNN
Office Machines, General Business

VIRGINIA MEE
Shorthand, Typing

Mrs. Virginia Mee and her husband, Jerry, live in a small apartment where they enjoy listening to records and entertaining guests. The weekends often find the Mees at the theater enjoying a recent movie. At left, Mrs. Mee is shown admiring one of her husband's paintings.

Mr. Larry Stalter is a resident of Eureka, and like many of our faculty members is a graduate of Normal University. He is a well-traveled man, having seen both oceans and Canada. Mr. Stalter is also an avid TV fan, but for relaxation his favorite hobby is water-color painting.

LARRY STALTER
Salesmanship, Typing

LOIS SMITH
Physical Education

First and foremost on Lois Smith's agenda of things to do after school concerns her little daughter, Kelly. She must also attend to other household tasks such as house-cleaning, cooking, and washing dishes. After these time-taking activities come sports —golf, bowling, and swimming.

A recent addition to our P.E. department is Mrs. Marge McWilliams. She and her family have recently moved into their beautiful new home in East Peoria. Mrs. McWilliams has her hands quite full in her free time caring for her baby girl as well as her pet bulldog and cat.

MARGE McWILLIAMS
Physical Education

FRITZ MILLARD
World History, Physical Education

OUR ENTHUSIASTIC

For perfect relaxation after an exerting day of teaching, Mr. Fritz Millard recommends stereo. At left, he is seen selecting one of his favorite albums. Also Mr. Millard, being a family man, enjoys tobogganning in Detweiler Park with his children during the winter. Many a free night is spent attending sports events.

RONALD LITTLE
Physical Education

A genuine sports enthusiast, Mr. Ron Little, spends his free time reading coaching magazines and attending meetings of the coaches and officials associations. For relief from the tensions of coaching, he enjoys relaxing with his wife and two sons and listening to his hi-fi set.

After a long hard day of teaching, Mr. Gene Strode selects a quiet corner of his den to relax and catch up on his paper work. Another avid sports fan, his favorite pastime is hunting. Quail, rabbits, and pheasants haven't a chance when this sharpshooter sets his sights on them.

GENE STRODE
Physical Education

HELEN SCHMIDT
Latin, U.S. History

As a change from reading and studying for teaching preparation, Miss Helen Schmidt finds pleasure in driving her Chevrolet to shopping centers, on vacations, and in visiting friends and relatives in other cities. Miss Schmidt also enjoys watching TV; her favorite personality being Pat Boone.

Mr. Jack Clinton is indeed a busy man. Among his outside interests are gardening and his Number One Son, Randy. He also enjoys taking colored slides of places he has visited, namely Mexico and the Southwest. At right, Mr. Clinton is getting ready to take some movies of his family.

JACK CLINTON

FACULTY ENJOY SPORTS

A graduate of Nebraska University is Mr. Richard Barnett. He is a member of the honorary Math fraternity, Kappa Mu Epsilon. In his spare time, Mr. Barnett enjoys outdoor sports, fishing and stamp collecting. At right, he admires a prize catch he landed on a recent fishing trip.

RICHARD BARNETT
Algebra, Geometry, and Trig

JAMES ADAMS
General Math, Algebra I, II

Mr. James Adams, carries his enjoyment of mathematical calculation over into his hobby of bridge. He also gains pleasure from collecting stamps. At left, he is shown looking over several pages of new stamps ready to be placed in his album. Mr. Adams also makes peanut brittle at Christmas.

An out-of-door enthusiast, Mr. Donald Bangert, devotes many lazy summer days on the banks of his favorite fishing pond trying to catch his quota. For a Math teacher, Mr. Bangert has a very green thumb. He enjoys growing and caring for plants. He also experiments with them through grafting.

As the sun breaks over the horizon, we find our cafeteria ladies trudging to LCHS to begin their long day. Preparing enough food for six hundred students each day is a full time job, but through it all, these ladies find time to joke with the students and chat with the teachers. Their capable assistants help to lighten the load considerably by washing dishes, pouring milk, and selling desserts.

Our maintenance staff, familiar personalities around LCHS, are always the first to arrive and the last to leave the building. Their duties range from sweeping the floors to repairing equipment; and, during our extracurricular activities, one of the crew is always on hand to keep things in running order.

GIRLS LEARN HOMEMAKING TECHNIQUES

This busy little freshman, Sharon Staley, is diligently working on her first Home Ec sewing project, under the supervision of her teacher Mrs. Ann Clinton. The freshman students are required to make a skirt and a blouse which they model in the annual F.H.A. Style Show. In Home Ec II the girls must make a garment with fitted sleeves and a fitted waist. Party dresses or formals are usually made in Home Ec III. Finally in the fourth year of Home Ec, the girls make lined suits. Besides making these various projects, the girls are taught the parts of the machine, how to work the attachments, and they learn the various tricks and short cuts to make their sewing easier and faster. These tips are kept in a notebook for use in the future.

Another important phase of Home Ec is cooking. The freshman girls learn how to make salads, biscuits, cookies, and later in the year they prepare breakfast. As they advance in their Home Ec training they learn how to cook meat and vegetables and how to can fruit. During all four years of Home Ec the teachers try to teach their girls to budget their time wisely so they will be efficient housekeepers. Each girl must learn the seven basic foods and how to include them in their meals so their families will receive nutritious diets. Proper table setting and serving technique is also stressed. In the picture, Mrs. Clara McCraith, Connie Speck, and Marilyn Harris watch as Pat Bozark and Anita Johnson demonstrate the proper way to pour water and coffee.

STUDENTS DISPLAY TALENTS IN MUSIC

Several of Limestone's musically inclined students choose to spend their fifth hour playing in the band.

The LCHS band, being a very active organization, begins its yearly performances by playing and marching in formations during half time of the football games. As shown in the picture the varsity band, under the direction of Mr. William Morse, are practicing for their appearance at the forthcoming game.

Next on their agenda is playing at the basketball games. During this time, their fifth hour practice sessions are devoted to the selections played at half time and pep assemblies.

Later, much preparation is put into getting ready for their special concerts. For these performances, a guest conductor is invited to Limestone to practice with and direct the band members.

A course many students take for sheer enjoyment is choir which meets fifth hour under the able direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Krumpe. At left, some of her students gather around the piano to practice their parts.

Many freshmen, after taking the required first year, continue the course by singing in the sophomore choir.

The juniors and seniors, a more select group, blend their voices to make the A Cappella choir a huge success whenever performing. The A Cappella choir presents various programs during the year; special assemblies during Easter, Christmas, and Thanksgiving; Christmas Nativity program; exchange assemblies with other schools; and their annual spring concert. This spring, with money from selling World's Finest Chocolate bars, the choir will journey to Chicago.

NUMBERS MAKE OUR HEADS GO 'ROUND

The Mathematics department at Limestone offers a rather complete education in the field of math to interested students. For Freshmen, a course in math is required, either General Mathematics or Algebra I. The first offers more teaching of basic arithmetic, while the latter introduces a new concept of using letters instead of numbers in working problems. The second course in math is Plane Geometry. In the picture Evie Grafleman and Chris Tenney are trying to prove two lines parallel with the help of their instructor, Mr. Dick Barnett. The elective offered to Juniors or other students is Algebra II. In this class, the students delve deeper into the knowledge they gained in Algebra I. The seniors take a semester of Solid Geometry and a semester of Trigonometry.

Office machines is one of the many interesting courses in the business field at Limestone. It is very important that the students learn to use these machines if they are seeking a career in business. They learn to use the adding and calculating machines; the duplicators, both the ditto and the mimeograph; the ediphone; and the electric typewriter. At the left, Mrs. Rosemary Lynn is supervising as Karen Dawson puts into practice her knowledge of stencilling by making programs for basketball and football games. For projects, the students make posters depicting phases of the business world. These future secretaries help the newspaper staff by addressing the school papers that are sent home to the parents.

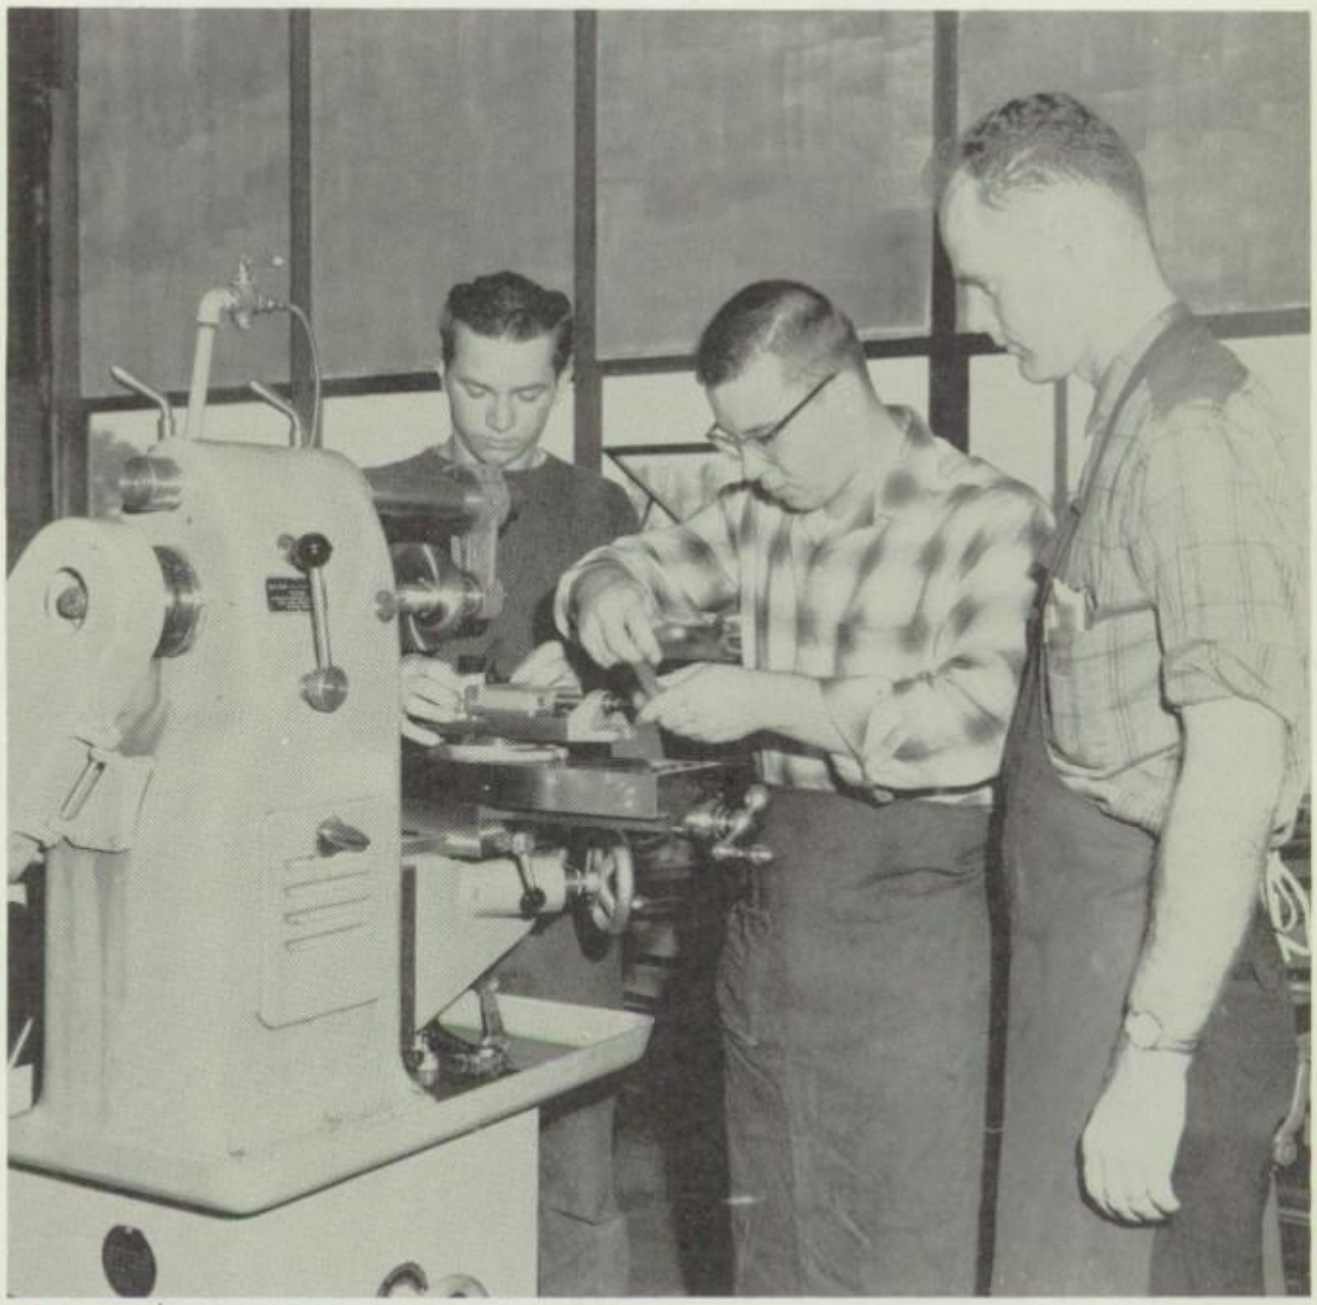
THE SCIENCES CHALLENGE STUDENTS

Today's great emphasis on science is demonstrated at Limestone by the large number of students taking our various science courses. A course in chemistry is very popular with the students. The first few weeks are spent in learning the valences and symbols of the most important elements out of the 104 known ones. After accomplishing this challenge the students study the reactions taking place between various substances through experimentation in the lab and through writing and balancing formulas. Later in the year the students begin learning the basic fundamentals concerning atomic energy. They learn home safety factors and the use of the Geiger counters as Kathe Hedum and Steve Stevens are doing with the aid of Mr. Wyzlic.

All Sophomores are required to take Biology. This interesting course consists of studying living things. The students begin their study with plants, then they study the simplest one-celled animals and work up to the most complex animal, man. They are required to make leaf and bug collections to augment their studies. The Biology classes are well known for their dissection of frogs and that smelly formaldehyde. The organs of the frog are similar to man's and the dissection helps the students to understand how they themselves tick." Laboratory equipment plays a big part in helping the students understand the fundamentals of Biology. Here, Mr. Richard Ingram is explaining the respiratory system to Linda Farrow and John Ector, by using their new skeleton.

LCHS STUDENTS DEVELOP NUMEROUS SKILLS

Metal shop is a favorite subject of the boys. The freshman course consists of learning the names and the uses of various hand tools and simply knowing their way around the shop. The importance of safety is stressed throughout the course. As a project the boys, using hand tools, make household equipment such as cookie cutters, dust pans and match boxes. In the advanced courses, the students learn to use the power equipment in the shop. The boys in the picture are using the shaper with the assistance of Mr. Eugene Gire. They also learn to use the milling machine and the lathes. Welding is also taught in advance courses. These boys make equipment for their future workshops such as hammers, chisels, clamps, and vices.



Basketball is one of the many sports offered in Limestone's P.E. department. As shown in the picture, Mrs. Smith, acting as referee, begins the game with a jump ball. Other sports include archery, badminton, baseball, ping-pong, shuffleboard, and volleyball. Social dancing and square dancing, which the students look forward to each year, is also offered. Physical education keeps the students in good physical shape, teaches them good sportsmanship, and helps them to understand the importance of teamwork. It increases their skill in playing and brings them in contact with a variety of sports. The girls are tested on their knowledge of the rules throughout the year.

STUDENTS EXPLORE PAST AND PRESENT

Today, more colleges are requiring at least two years of a foreign language. As a result, these courses are vitally important. Limestone offers two years of both Spanish and Latin. In Spanish I the students are introduced to the language through the use of conversation between teacher and student. Phrases such as "Buenos dias, amigo. Como esta usted?" become very familiar in the first few weeks. Later as the students build up their vocabulary a very helpful device, the tape recorder, is used. The students speak into the recorder in their best Spanish as Gloria Breighthaupt and Bob Ennis are doing with the assistance of Mr. Jack Clinton. Later, it is played back to them. In this way, they can hear their mistakes in pronunciation and strive to correct them.

Two factual courses offered at Limestone are American history and World history. The former is a class required of Juniors; the latter is an elective. At the beginning of the school year the students receive a bit of ancient history. They study various explorers' expeditions and trace them through map-work as Doug Johnson and Judy Doty are doing with the aid of Miss Helen Schmidt. The course offers a detailed study of the colonization of America up to present times — World War II, and the forming of the United Nations. Throughout the year, the students view many fine movies which impress on their minds the facts they learned in class. They also have other projects such as making book reports and building or creating a project which emphasizes some phase of history.

WE LEARN BY EXPERIMENTS AND RESEARCH

Term papers, book reports, 500 word papers, and oral reports plague LCHS students the year 'round. For information on their subject, they turn to the library to find material. Our work is made more pleasant by the peaceful atmosphere of the sunny, spacious library. Our library now consists of 4500 books and each year about 600 new books take their place on our shelves. Mrs. Meeker, our librarian, keeps a four year file on newspapers and magazines for our use. As you can see, Mrs. Meeker is always willing to help us find material. At left, Paul Springer and Pat Ricks are taking advantage of this service.

The money collected by the library in fines (two cents a day), is used to replace lost and worn books and to buy plastic book jackets.

The boys in vocational agriculture learn about farming and farm related occupations from work in the class room, in the laboratory, from their farming programs they have developed at home, and from FFA activities. The Freshman and Sophomore boys study and work with soils, crops, livestock, and farm shop. Junior and Senior students go into the subjects in more detail with the emphasis on farm management, agriculture economics, and counseling for farming as an occupation and future education in agriculture. At right, Mr. Malmgren watches as Ray Hauk and Ronald Gunther use a centrifuge to test milk samples, brought in by Ray Hauk, for butterfat. Adult evening classes round out the Vocational Agriculture program at LCHS.

FOOD FOR HEALTH AND THOUGHT

It's two-thirty and Limestone students are seen throwing their books into their lockers, making a "bee-line" for the gym to enjoy a paid assembly. During the year the Student Council sponsors eight of these assemblies to give the students a chance to see something new and educational. All-girl assemblies on the latest fashions and make-up, help the girls in grooming. The boys, too, have assemblies on vocations and driving. To get the student body in the spirit for football and basketball games, pep assemblies are presented by the Pep Club and other organizations. As a member of the Mid-State Eight we participate in an exchange assembly program and Limestone is entertained by a band and a choir from one of these schools. Special assemblies at Christmas and Easter round off our program of assemblies.

The following is a true story witnessed by many, seemingly concealed by few.

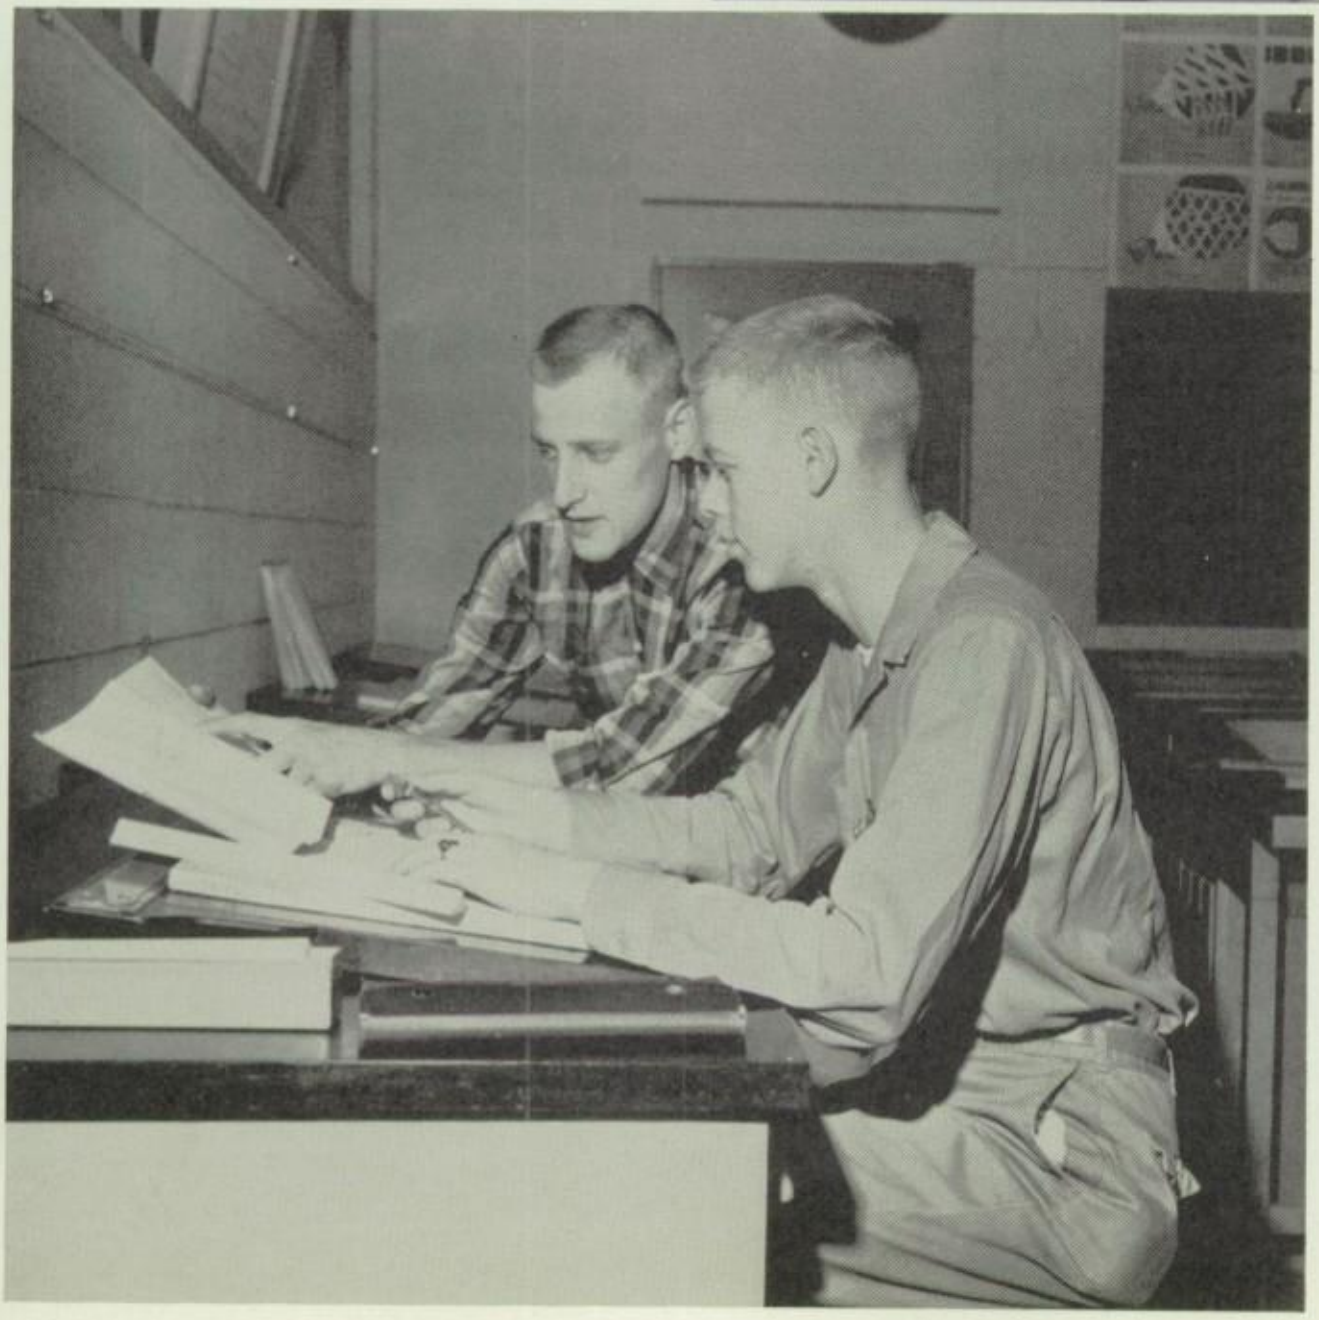
TIME: 11:49
PLACE: Limestone High
SETTING: Any number of typical class rooms.

A hundred students are seen anxiously sitting on the edge of their chairs—staring wordlessly at the clock. Seconds tick by and then comes the magic moment—11:50. A bell is heard ringing in the distance, feet are set in motion, and soon lunch hour students are cramming into line.

A scene such as this takes place three times daily. Five hundred hungry students are fed in one day. Our busy cafeteria ladies prepare 150 lbs. of potatoes daily, 90 lbs. of hamburger, use 37 loaves of bread, 8 lbs. of butter, and 15 gal. of vegetables. They bake 25 pies, 180 cookies and prepare 40 salads. Each student's lunch is 35 cents.

BLUEPRINTS GUIDE OUR WORK

All sophomores are required to take a semester of speech which is included in Sophomore English. If they choose, they may continue their speech training by taking an elective course. The first semester, emphasis is placed on types of communication —interpersonal, radio, TV, and advertising. They enter a study of speaking situations consisting of speeches for special occasions, demonstration, and formal platform speeches. Under the latter, they must express, convince, and stimulate. The variety of speech topics can be seen in the picture as Charlotte Cox demonstrates the use of physical therapy on her patient, Carol Conner. The second semester, the students work on material to use in speech contests. This year, fifteen students visited six major tournaments and several minor ones.



A course in drafting is available to any student all four years of school. For freshmen, beginning shop includes seven weeks of drawing. Students learn basic principles of drafting and later draw free-hand sketches of one view of a tool. To the sophomore, a semester course is available, mechanical drawing. It introduces the student to orthographic projection (drawing an article in three views), and isometric and oblique drawings. The junior year deals with machine drawings; students draw screws, bolts, and threads. At the left, Mr. Fred Reinholdt checks one of Gerald Bieringer's drawings. Finally, in the senior year, students delve into architectural drawing. They learn valuable information concerning the drawing of house plans and also the construction of models of homes.

Swim hard or drown! This is the feeling the Yearbook Staff had this year in striving to capture the highlights of the school year in their theme "The River." Not only do the staff members work every first hour, but after school hours are given up to the Amulet also. There is always a deadline to meet with a thousand things to do in order to be ready for it.

opens the cover of the Amulet. From its well planned pages jumps the vivid memory of a wonderful school year. One can sense the effort that went into the Yearbook simply by glancing at it. Through all the hard work and all the fun, the members of the staff finally emerge. They are glad to have given a valuable present, proud to have done a good job, and ready to dive in again next year.

STUDENT COUNCIL TREDS FORWARD

To keep life and a government flowing along smoothly at L.C.H.S. we have a responsible group, the Student Council. Besides representing the student body in working with the faculty, the Student Council sponsors many worthwhile activities. Among these are the Back-to-School Dance, Homecoming, Thanksgiving Baskets, the Christmas Dance, and Student Government Day. This year our Student Council was host at the State Student Council Convention in Chicago.

This organization consists of six members of each class. They are elected each year by the students. An all-school election is held to determine the President and Vice-President.

The Student Council is a main branch of our school curriculum. Its guidance and assistance navigates our school skillfully along the waterway of school government.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The flaming torch and the keystone are the emblems of the National Honor Society pictured above. Members of this organization are chosen by the faculty. The teachers rate the students from the upper third of the class on scholarship, leadership, character, and service. The honored few who are voted into National Honor Society will always remember the inspiring candlelight induction ceremony.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

"I call this meeting to order." The House of Representatives is hard at work at its task of promoting a better working relationship between the students and the Student Council.

One member from each homeroom is elected to the House of Representatives. The Representatives help on school projects such as elections, homecoming dances, Thanksgiving baskets, clothing drives, and safety week.

NEEDLES CLUB

"A stitch in time saves nine." The members of the Needles Club put this famous quotation in practice. Expanded from the home economic classes, this organization gives the girls a chance to gain experience in sewing and needle work.

MUSIC APPRECIATION

Listen! This is the key word in Music Appreciation Club. The members learn to listen to all focus of good music from classic to modern music. This helps them appreciate the beauty of music and the happiness it may bring.

FUTURE TEACHERS

The job of teachers of tomorrow, an honored profession for which these students of today are striving. During the year, the club helps them become well acquainted with their chosen occupation. At the State Convention the prospective teachers received valuable information and assurance of the wisdom of their decision.

LIBRARY STAFF

"I just can't find anything about daily life of the Ubangies." This call is answered by Mrs. Meeker and the library assistants. The information or book is found in short order. Caring for books, checking books in and out are part of their job. Their services help us save time and learn how to use the wealth of material available to us.

FIRST ROW: Mrs. Meeker, Advisor; A. Shute, L. Snyder, A. DePriest, J. Selman, S. Becker, S. Chitwood, J. Snedden, C. VanDyke, J. Spengler.

FUTURE NURSES

A lamp is the inspiration of the members of this worthy club. The girls of F.N.A. look to the Florence Nightingale lamp as a symbol of their goal in nursing. Besides learning more of medical careers, the members sponsored a Christmas party and participated in the Peoria Medical Association Auxiliary Day on November 10th.

J. Harold, T. Jackson, S. Tomatz

Strike up the band! Truer words will never be spoken. Limestone's band has performed at a variety of activities this year. They began the year by stepping off at the Pumpkin Festival in Eureka and two weeks later were on the march at the western Homecoming. At several home football games the band provided half-time entertainment for the few spectators who braved the early winter weather. Although jammed in a bus, the band played their favorite marches to add a festive note to an otherwise rain-drenched homecoming parade. They were also seen performing in their striking blue and gray uniforms at eleven home basketball games.

Later on in the year the band played at Woodruff High School in an exchange assembly. Mr. Kent Cambell, from Bradley University, directed one of the band's two concerts.

The band practices everyday during fifth hour to be prepared for their performances.

HOMEMAKERS PREPARE FOR FUTURE

The girls of the Future Homemakers of America are ever working to improve self, home, and community. These goals are achieved through their many activities of the year.

The F.H.A. sponsors the annual style show in which all girls enrolled in home economics classes model the clothing they have made during the year. The Christmas spirit was spread by their caroling at the Bell-Wood Nursing Home. A stuffed animal was the admission to the F.H.A. dance; the toys were given to needy children at Christmas.

FIRST ROW: C. Harris, P. Hanchett, J. Williams. SECOND ROW: V. Warner, A. Glasford, Miss Risen, Advisor; J. Doty, B. Pearson. THIRD ROW: V. Millington, M. Weachter.

SUZZY Q

It's a woman's world! Or so hope the girls planning to enter the field of business. The Suzzy Q Club helps future secretaries and stenographers to further explore the requirements of a career. This November the graduates of 1959 were invited to a spaghetti supper. The honored guests told of some of their working experiences. Their spring banquet featured a woman who is activitely engaged in the business world.

COLLEGE SAL

The hazy dream of college comes clearly into focus for the girls interested in furthering their education. Problems concerning sororities, scholarships, proper clothing, and college life in general become less frightening as the girls get a better understanding of them. The members discuss their questions, have lectures from college students, and see movies showing campuses of some nearby colleges.

FIRST ROW: M. Monts, K. Hedum, Mrs. Lynn, Advisor; W. Wrigley, K. Dawson. SECOND ROW: E. Ector, P. Patton, M. Randolph, J. Bell, K. Geick. THIRD ROW: S. James, J. Doubet, J. Maxedon, S. Hartseil.

KEY CLUB

The Key Club is an organization sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. Its membership is select and limited; they are elected by the members and approved by the sponsor and the school administration.

Primarily a service organization, the Key Club assists the Kiwanis in their many community activities. In addition, the Limestone Club sold delicious cheese at Christmas time and sponsored the Community Hobby Fair.

LETTERMEN CLUB

A letter from any one of Limestone's many sports is the ticket for admission to this select club. During the year the boys sold pencils with the basketball schedule on them and had a bake sale after a home game. Besides these money making projects, the club sponsored a faculty-student picnic on the school grounds last spring. To earn a sports letter is a great achievement, therefore, any boy may well be proud to be a member of Lettermen's Club.

STAMP CLUB

"The hobby of kings and the king of hobbies" is how stamp collecting has been described. The members of our stamp club share their hobby with people from all walks of life, all over the world. They may never know the joy of finding a valuable stamp, but they gain a priceless enjoyment from the knowledge acquired and friendships formed.

FIRST ROW: L. Farrow, F. Muhich, Mr. Morse, Advisor, D. Masters, C. Savage. SECOND ROW: R. Hawk, B. DeYoung, D. Mefford, D. McMillan, A. Lipke, D. Phipps.

SPEECH AND DEBATE

Famous men and noted politicians must be good orators, but the speakers of this group say speech and debate contribute to the general education of a high school student. Entering most of the state speech contests, the members also received their main objective, training in speech performance.

FIRST ROW: E. McCabe, J. Bruce, C. Connor, J. Holman, H. Copeland. SECOND ROW: B. Walters, R. Lewey, Mr. Hopp, Advisor; J. Wormer, F. Renner

CHESS CLUB

"All the king's horses and all the king's men couldn't put Humpty together again"; but put them on a chess board, add bishops and queens, and it brings the Chess Club together again and again. Both beginners and experts of the Chess Club enjoy the game which has fascinated men for centuries. All strive to master the art of playing the game well.

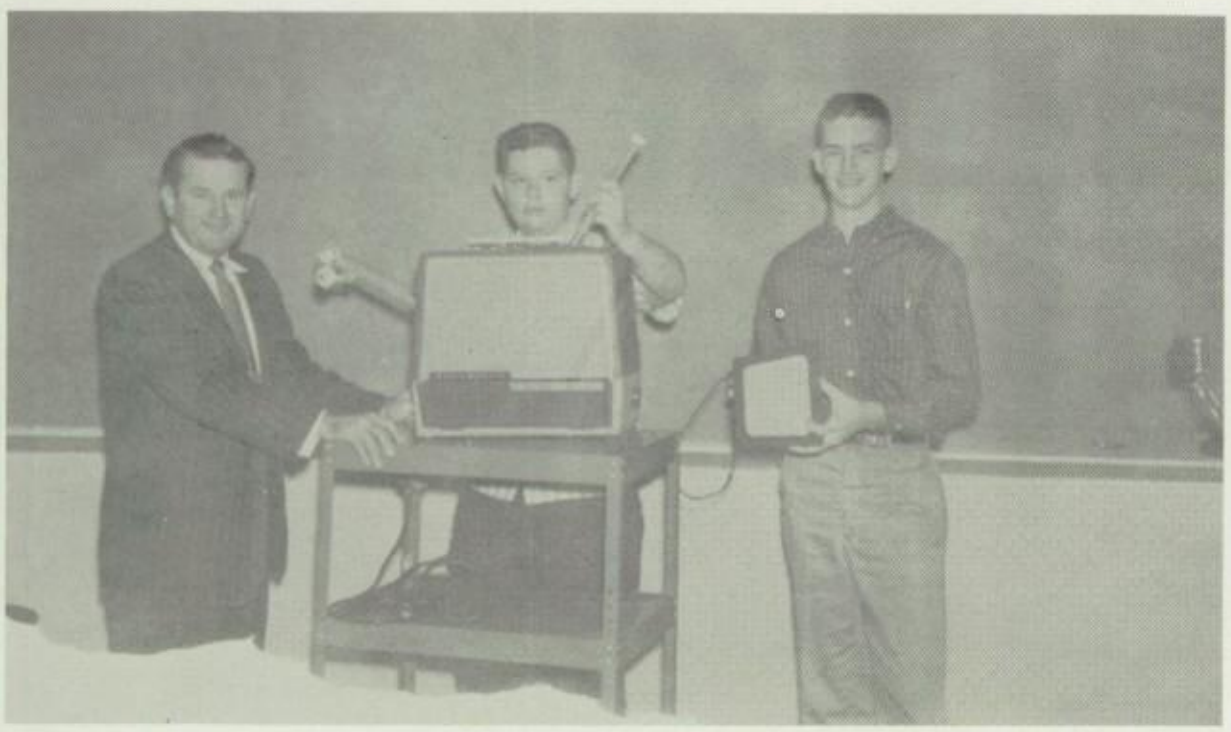
ELECTRONICS CLUB

A flash comes out of a room! Is there lightning in the school building? No, the members of the Electronics Club are experimenting. These boys find an interesting hobby in this subject as well as valuable information for future use.



Mr. Bangert, Advisor; C. Gibson, R. Meyer.

PROJECTION CREW

From lights out to rewind, the projection crew is on the job. Their work includes showing movies, patching film and setting up and taking down, and caring for equipment. This service helps us to obtain the vast world of knowledge that is available to us through film.

FIRST ROW: D. Sarlin, Mr. McCraith, Advisor; G. Heller. SECOND ROW: D. Denson, A. Lindsey.

STAGE CREW

The actors are doing a winter scene with snow and sleigh bells! What gives the added touch to a performance that makes a dreamland seem real? Scenery! The members of the stage crew are responsible for this important atmosphere of a production. They may not receive the applause but they are appreciated for the fine job they do.

FIRST ROW: C. Edwards, L. Holmes, J. Taylor, A. Johnson, Mrs. Stewart, Advisor; B. Rakestraw, J. Bruce, C. Carmody, D. Reichelderfer, K. Nelson. SECOND ROW: C. Leach, N. DeYoung, B. Wright, C. DRAMATICS CLUB

The lights fade out and the curtain rises; the Dramatics Club is again ready to present a performance. Now two years old, the club has already made great strides. Since the membership has greatly increased, it has been divided into two parts. The Freshmen and Sophomores are in one group and the Juniors and Seniors in another.

SEATED: S. Slane, Sec.; Mr. Millard, Advisor; Mrs. Smith, Advisor; R. Lewis, V. Pres. STANDING: K. Wolland, Pres.; G. Wilkinson, Sgt.-at-Arms.

On November 20, the members sponsored an all-school play, The Youngest. In the Spring there were two one-acts put on. Monthly, as the club met, different committees put on skits for the other members. In doing this, the participants received not only acting experience but constructive criticism and advice.

SQUARE DANCE

"Honor your partner. Honor your corner. Swing your honey 'round and 'round. Swing her up, right off the ground." This may be the call as the Square Dance Club begins its meeting. This new club meets in group B activity period. Over one hundred members take part in dancing the "Texas Star," "Birdie in the Cage," "Swing Like Thunder," or "Ole Arkansas." Besides improving their dancing, students may learn how to call square dances.

STANDING: N. Hurn, S. Reed, C. Harris, S. Shreve, S. Schindler, B. Gentry, J. Zimmerman. KNEELING: M. Randolph, A. Tyler, J. Renner.

USHERETTES

Directions, a program, and a friendly smile are the services offered by the Usherettes. These girls are chosen from the Junior and Senior classes by Mrs. Meredith. Their captain this year is Anita Tyler. Attractively attired, the Usherettes appear at the door at sports events, music functions, and many other social gatherings. Dependability and graciousness might well be the motto of the Usherettes.

JOURNALISM

The members of the Journalism club use pen and pencil as their sword. This club offers students the chance to learn to write interesting material, and to read a newspaper in order to obtain maximum benefits from it. Training in organization, business methods, art, salesmanship, bookkeeping, and business management is also offered. It is the aim of this club to produce interested and conscientious members for future newspaper staffs.

Bruninga, R. Storm, H. Sweetin, D. Wilkinson.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Anxious to prepare themselves for their chosen work, these boys meet monthly to discover more about the field of Industrial Arts. They do this through discussions and trips to businesses in the Peoria area. This year's trips were to Caterpillar and the Air National Guard.

These ambitious lads keep busy in between times by sponsoring paid movies for the student body. Proceeds from these movies make it possible for the club to take a trip to Chicago or St. Louis.

Recently affiliated with the Illinois State Industrial Arts Club, the Limestone club sent delegates to the state meeting in Springfield in May.

Y.F.C. CLUB

Youth for Christ or "Y.F.C." is a nationwide organization of high school youth. They work sincerely at their purpose of winning youth to Christ.

Every morning they hold prayer meetings on stage. As a local club they have held a greeting card sale, a bake sale, a Halloween party, and after-game parties.

The Y.F.C. participates in activities with other schools in the area. Rallies are held every third Saturday of the month. The quiz team competes against quiz teams from other schools and this year the club won the traveling attendance trophy two consecutive times. Area "Fun-vision" parties are also held.

SPANISH CLUB

Divertirse y .aprender! This lively group promises these two things, fun and knowledge, to all its members. The knowledge gained is about Spanish-Americans. The club has movies, lectures, and discussions to get a better understanding of the customs and way of living of the Spanish-speaking people.

The second item, fun, is achieved by the club sponsoring and participating in many activities. The members entered a float in the Homecoming parade and sponsored a dance. Besides these Limestone activities, some of Los Alegres attended a Spring Fiesta where they exchanged ideas and enjoyed an evening with students from other Peoria area schools.

BEGINNING CHOIR

Struggling hard to receive promotion to the A Cappella choir are the sophomores of the Beginning Choir. Due to an increased interest in music, there are now two classes of the Beginning Choir; one meets first hour, and the other sixth hour. During these two hours favorite songs and exercises can be heard coming from room 153.

Besides working to learn more about music, the Beginning Choir has many opportunities in the school year to participate in musical programs. At the Christmas program they sang two songs by themselves and joined the A Cappella choir in singing O Holy Night. They also participate in the Spring Concert.

FIRST ROW: S. Finley, K. Bledsoe, J. Farrow, D. Butler, S. Hasten, B. Pryor, N. Hurn, J. Stahl, M. Holverson, M. Robertson, J. Meinders, S Funkhouser. SECOND ROW: B. Gentry, S. Kellenberger, S. CHOIR MOTTO: HAVE MUSIC — WILL SING

Rings on their fingers and bells on their toes, they will have music wherever they go. And go they do! This lively organization brightened many of our school activities this year including the Back to School night for parents, Easter Assembly, and the wonderful Christmas program. The students of Central High School received the benefits of the choir's hard work in January—at an exchange assembly.

The enterprising choir sold candy bars to pay for their trip to Chicago this spring for the Student Council Convention. Wherever they go, the choir brings music and entertainment to everyone.

PHOTOGRAPHY

"Say cheese." The Photography Club is divided into two parts. There is a beginning club for those just starting an interest in photography, and an advanced club for those who have already conquered the fundamentals of photography. This year the club framed a constitution to govern the club. During the meetings students learn how to operate a camera.

F.A.A.

The Future Artists of America add color to school life with a rainbow of paintings, sketches, and posters. This club meets monthly during activity period. Here members endeavor to promote the artistic talents of all students. Films and guest speakers are presented at meetings. This year the third Annual Art Show was held.

SLIM 'N TRIM

"A Prettier, Peppier You" is the theme for the Slim 'n Trim Club this year. They strive to obtain this goal by having speakers, field trips, movies, and especially those sweat-provoking exercise sessions each Tuesday. The club sponsored one money-making scheme, contributing their proceeds to the carnival fund. If you think there have been some drastic changes resulting in prettier, slimmer girls around L.C.H.S., you will know that they have the Slim 'n Trim Club to thank for it.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

Junior Achievement is a national organization to teach youth of the nation the way a business operates. The Junior Achievement Club of Limestone was formed to promote understanding and interest in the Junior Achievement movement.

Groups of high school youth form a small company. They are advised by members of the business world. After securing capital through the sale of stock, the students then manufacture a product.

PEP CLUB BOOSTS ENTHUSIASM

Looking for enthusiasm on a large scale? The members of the Pep Club claim enthusiasm and sportsmanship as their goal. These one hundred and fifty-seven students try to go to all the games and cheer as a group. In doing so, they hope to encourage other students to attend the games and back the team.

The Pep Club was in charge of many of the skits and loud mouth assemblies put on during the year. They worked on flash cards for further boosting the competitive spirit at the games and took attendance at many home games. Our largest club here at L.C.H.S., the Pep Club has done a great deal toward boosting school spirit.

ROCKET GRIDDERS WIN TWO —

CO-CAPTAINS: Henry Ezel and Ed Stone

This year the Rocket gridders finished with a season record of two wins and seven losses. The wins came over East Peoria, 18-6; and over Woodruff, 25-19. With a few breaks the team could have won a couple more games which would have made the season record look more impressive. The team made costly mistakes that the opponents took advantage of. Coach Little said that the team spirit was very good, but their attitude must improve.

LOSE SEVEN THIS SEASON

Under the supervision of our new football coaches, Mr. Ron Little, and his assistant, Mr. Gene Strode, our offense was primarily a ground attack. Our ground attack was led by senior fullback Ed Stone and junior halfback Dick Clemons. Passing now and then, led by our junior quarterback Gary Hoerl, was added to open up the defense. Next year there will be fourteen returning lettermen upon whom Coach Little is depending to improve the team's record.

Poor team spirit, partially due to the small number of players who reported for practice, hampered the hopes of the Freshman and Sophomore football teams this year. Neither team was able to capture a victory. The freshmen had a couple close games but were unable to pull through with a victory.

Coach Gene Gire, who was very disappointed with the sophomore team, remarked, "The boys just didn't click together as a team the whole year." Coaches Gire and Dick Ingram are hoping for a better turnout of underclassmen next year to boost the morale and the success of their teams.

RAH! RAH! RAH! Wind, rain or cold weather could not dampen our cheerleaders' spirit. Plagued by the worst football weather in our history, these girls did not fail to keep the spectators' hopes alive. CROSS-COUNTRY 5TH IN MID STATE EIGHT

Jim Potts, Earl Dunham, Merle Clemens, Don Thompson, Terry Hatterman, Rick Freeze, Russell Campen, Dale Schultz, Frank Renner, Coach Fred Reinholt.

This year the Limestone Cross-Country team completed the season with a record of three wins and seven losses in dual meets. Co-Captains for this year's team were Earl Dunham and Dale Schultz. Earl Dunham was also the team's outstanding runner: third in the Mid-State Eight meet and nineteenth (out of two hundred runners) in the Central Invitational.

Mr. Fred Reinholdt, who is in his first year of coaching the harriers, stated that the small turnout of runners was a handicap this season. With seven lettermen returning, he hopes for a better season next year.

Earl Dunham, followed by a Richwood's runner, sets the pace in a home meet.

The Rockets had a slow start this season, winning their opening game at Washington, and dropping their next six. Coach Herzog believes that the main weaknesses were: "poor rebounding, poor free throw shooting, and not keeping our poise at the very last of the game." Mr. Herzog further stated, "This is what cost us those close games." Upon being asked about the team's strong points he had this to say: "Our strong points would certainly have to be listed as good ball handling, good outside shooting, and speed on offense and defense."

No one can point out one certain player who carried the team to victory, although there were a few players who received a large amount of publicity in the paper.

The varsity finished with an 11-12 record, which falls short of last year's record of 15-10. One of the most exciting games of the season was our second game with Central, a harassing 61-46 victory. The boys, playing excellent ball, gained newspaper publicity calling it "a near-perfect game." Teamwork and cooperation of every player were more in evidence in this game than any other of the season.

Next year's ball club "has the potential of being a pretty good club." Continuing, Coach Herzog stated, "We will have seven or eight of this year's varsity back, plus some fair freshmen and sophomores moving up to fill the vacant varsity positions."

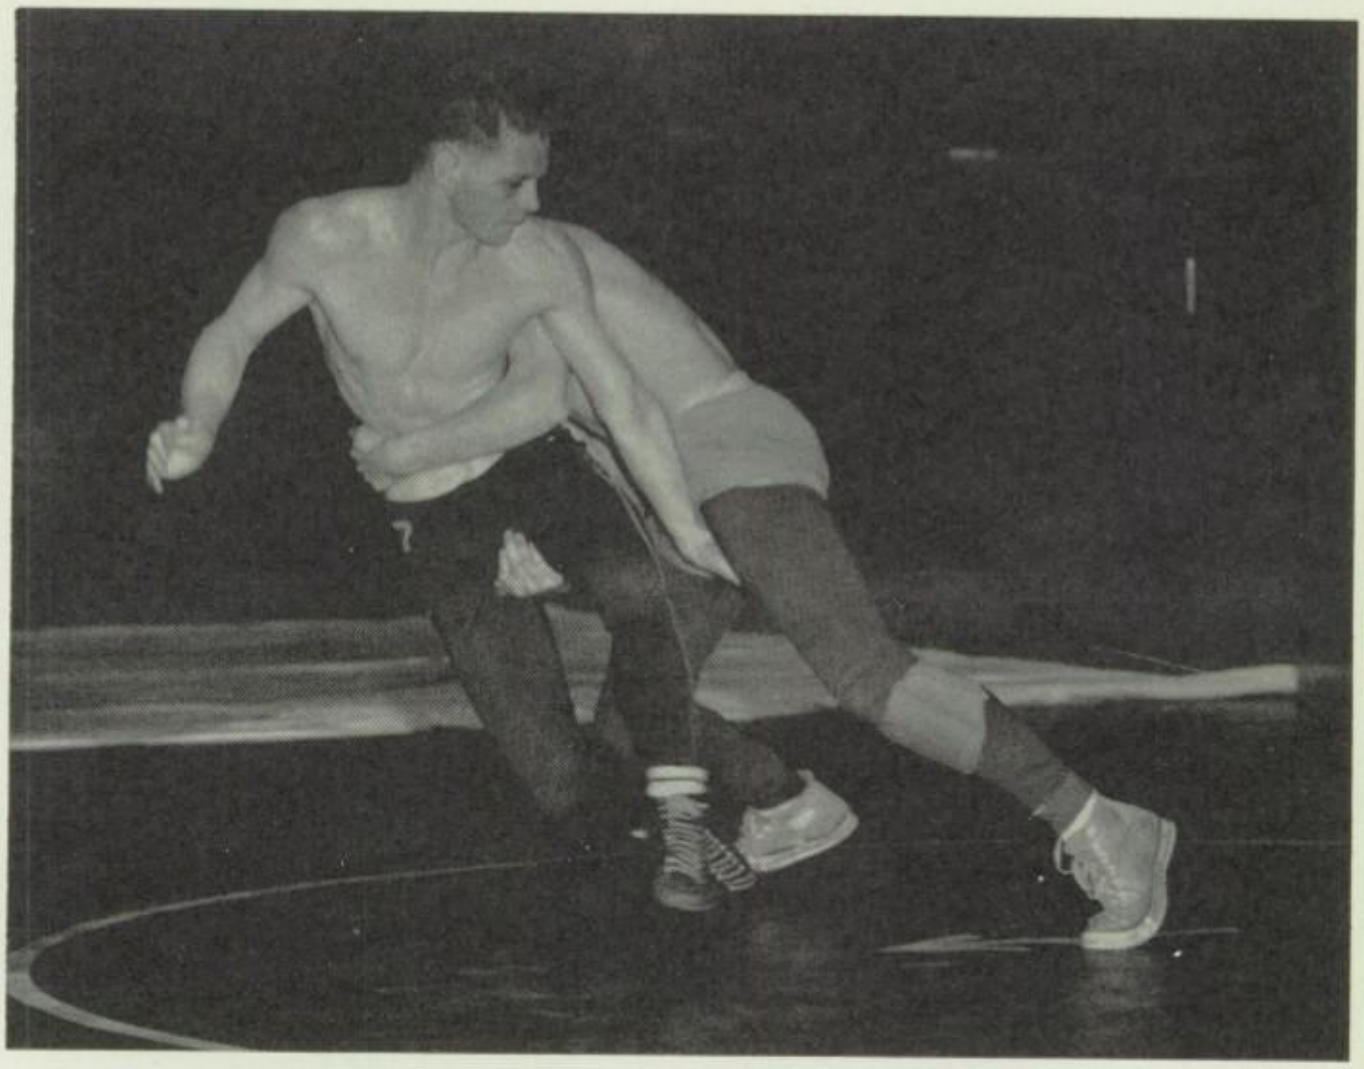
At the end of the wrestling season, when team members elected their outstanding grapplers, Henry Ezel was elected most valuable, and Gerald Knight most improved. The co-captains of our successful team were Ed Rowley and Wayne Sary. Coach Strode believes the next year's team "will have to work hard to equal the record of this year's fine squad." The four returning lettermen will be Jerry Knight, Jim Kirk, Stu Porter, and Hugh Pierson.

THIRD IN MID STATE EIGHT



Wayne Sary wrestles for the top position. Wayne won the match for the championship of the 138-lb. class.

The wrestling squad had a fine season this year; they finished with 8 wins, 3 losses, and 3 ties. The squad received many honors by taking third in the Mid State Eight wrestling tournament. They were fourth in the Illini tournament, second in the District, and sixth in the Sectional in which seventeen teams competed.

Individual honors in the sectional went to Jim Kirk—3rd in the 103-lb. class, Wayne Sary—3rd in the 138-lb. class, and Henry Ezel—2nd in the 165-lb. class. By earning a second place in the sectional, Ezel went on to represent Limestone in the state finals, the first boy to represent Limestone in a state wrestling tournament.

The receiving team's anxious arms are ready to set up the ball for a quick return at a weekly meeting.

Now we put the spotlight on the Girls' Athletic Association, or as all know it, G.A.A. The purpose of this group is to promote the better understanding of sports' skills. Their schedule includes soccer, basketball, and other invigorating sports. They work in co-operation with the F.H.A. on the annual slumber party. The girls also sponsored a sock hop on January 16; a dance which was enjoyed by all. The grand prize for the best decorated socks was a large can of beans. There are approximately 52 members in the group. This year's officers are President, Rosie Grafelman; Vice-President, Bobby Welch; Secretary, Cheryl Thome and Treasurer Evelyn Grafelman. These girls enjoyed a well-rounded schedule of activities for the past year.

One of the many activities offered to students of L.C.H.S. is intramural basketball. During the basketball season a large number of boys spend mornings competing with their school-mates in basketball. They play just for the fun of it, and they enjoy the healthful exercise they receive from the sport.

Steve Quinn's Rebels took first place in the Freshman-Sophomore League with a 5-1 record, and Ron Guppy's Running Bears swept first place in the Junior-Senior League with a record of 6-0. For individual shooting in the Freshman-Sophomore League, Allan Hamm and Fred Carmody had 86 points for six games. Mr. Tenney, president of the Booster's Club, welcomes our parents to Limestone's first "Back to School Night."

Many found it hard to remember the closed doors due to construction.

Our annual "Back to School" dance was chalked up as a big success by those loyal students who attended.

At one of the first of our many pep assemblies, Mr. Gire introduced members of the football team.

VARIETY SHOW HOMECOMING

Faculty members, Clinton, Strode, Ingram, and Morse blend voices in their rendition of "I had a Dream, Dear."

The "True-Tones," Carol Harris, Bonnie Gentry, and Judy Bruce swing in rhythm to "I Enjoy Being a Girl."

Our Homecoming Festivities got off to a roaring start this year with the Variety Show. First on the agenda was the announcement of the Queen and attendants, who reigned over the remaining Homecoming activities. The Variety Show had a "first" this year with the addition of the faculty acts. The students also came forth with a flood of talent. Who will ever forget "Hey, Man," "I'm Glad I'm a Girl," "Rocket Stars," "Seven Little Girls," "Pom Pom Dance" and many others?

The men faculty donned their disguise as the Gold Frost Cheerleaders, to add a humorous touch to the Variety Show.

At our Annual Pep Rally and Bonfire, students watch as a Richwood's Knight is burned in effigy.

A large group of alumni and parents were present to join in the excitement of the occasion to renew friendships, and to reminisce their high school days. All were pleasantly surprised with the addition of colorful night fireworks which made our Bonfire Pep Rally the best ever. Following the Variety Show, the cheerleaders headed a Snake Dance to the bonfire. By the end of the evening, everyone had joined in with School Spirit and pep and the Homecoming weekend was well underway.

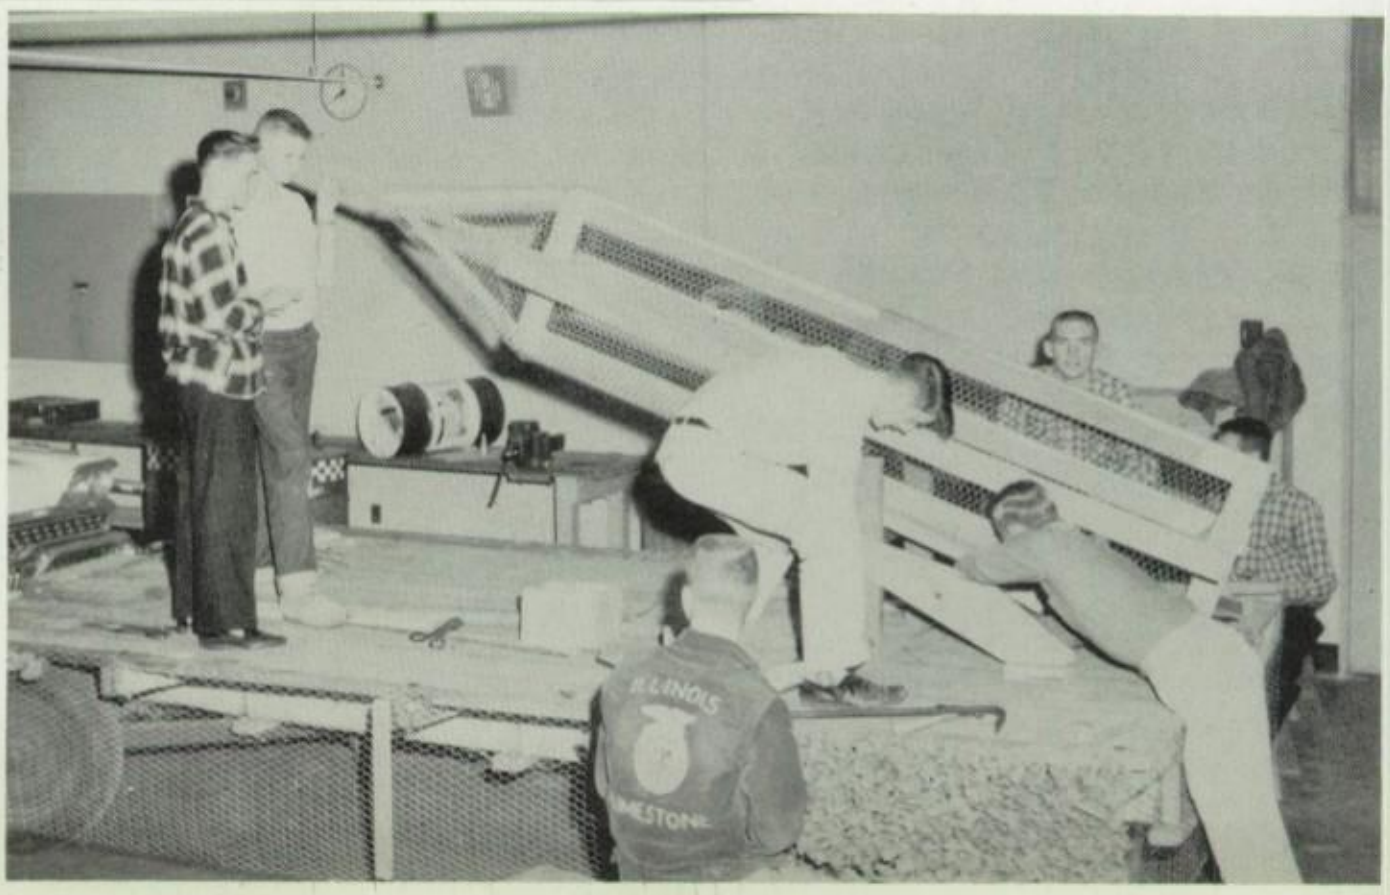
RAIN DAMPENS

The week of October 26-31 found us knee-deep in preparation for the big parade. Our homework began to suffer as Homecoming approached. Many hours of work were spent in preparing a beautiful array of floats; due to the "soupy weather," however, their beauty was short-lived. The theme of our Homecoming, "Southern Hospitality," was portrayed in song titles by the floats. First place award was taken by the Junior class with their interpretation of "Showboat." The Seniors, using "John Brown's Body," captured second place. The traveling placque went to the homeroom in the cafeteria. Despite the rain throughout the homecoming events, the absentees were few.

Under a false ceiling of crepe paper and a "Southern Moon," these couples are shown enjoying a dance to the dreamy music of the Vikings.

Hard-working seniors are busy preparing their float. Many were the sore fingers and bandaids after stuffing thousands of napkins through chicken wire.



The F.F.A. found that wire, hammers, nails, and boards, in addition to manpower, were only a few materials needed in preparing their third place float.

FLOATS, BUT NOT HOMECOMING SPIRIT

QUEEN AND ATTENDANTS: Sue Slane, Sophomore; Judy Bruce, Senior; Joyce Farrow, Queen; Sharon Mohn, Junior; and Karen Brown, Freshman.

At the stroke of 8:30 on October 31, the LCHS girls were turned into Southern Belles and escorted to the dance by their favorite gentlemen. Students, alumni, and faculty members were put into the spirit of the evening as their eyes feasted upon the beautiful Southern plantation complete with an apple tree and multicolored lanterns hanging from the ceiling. As one of the largest crowds in LCHS history danced to the music of the Vikings, each person could picture himself at an old-fashion Southern Ball. As the clock struck 11:30, the evening turned to memories and the Southern Belles to students once again.

Homecoming festivities bring together alumni, students, and faculty for a brief opportunity to catch up on all the news. Seen chatting during the dance are: Carleen Manz, Merlin Lambie, Joyce Farrow, Bob Hislope, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leach.

CANDY SALE TOPS AS STUDENTS DIG

The month of October brought about our first all-girl assembly for this year. A representative from the Patricia Stevens Modeling School in Chicago described the school and its teachings.

The all-girl assembly sponsored by the Patricia Stevens modeling school brought about a bevy of long-distance phone calls to girls who showed an interest in attending their school. Some of the girls invited representatives into their homes to talk over the school's program with the whole family.

During "Safety Week" we were again reminded through posters and special announcements of the ever-present need for being safety conscious. The jail, which was set up for those who were caught "speeding" to lunch, had fewer customers than usual. Could it be that our students are becoming ladies and gentlemen?

Following the same plan as last year, organization meetings were set up to meet during activity periods. They were divided into A and B groups alternating with the homeroom counseling program.

The long-awaited moment for seniors finally came in October. The announcement was made that the senior rings had finally arrived. Some of the boys didn't seem to keep theirs very long, and a few of the girls' rings disappeared, too.

Dangerous obstacles such as these were banished during "Safety Week" sponsored by the Student Council.

LCHS DONATES TO SPREAD HOLIDAY

At the Sports Banquet, Coach Little hands out letters to all deserving students of Limestone who take part in the school athletics.

Many students, teachers, and families came to the Sports Banquet; all who came had an enjoyable evening.

The all school play, "The Youngest," was presented very well by all the cast. They are left to right: Jan Garmers, AnitaJohnson, Dick Woods, Vonn Lee Johns, Terry Gibson, Judy Snedden, Todd Garrison, Marilyn Harris, and Judy Fletcher.

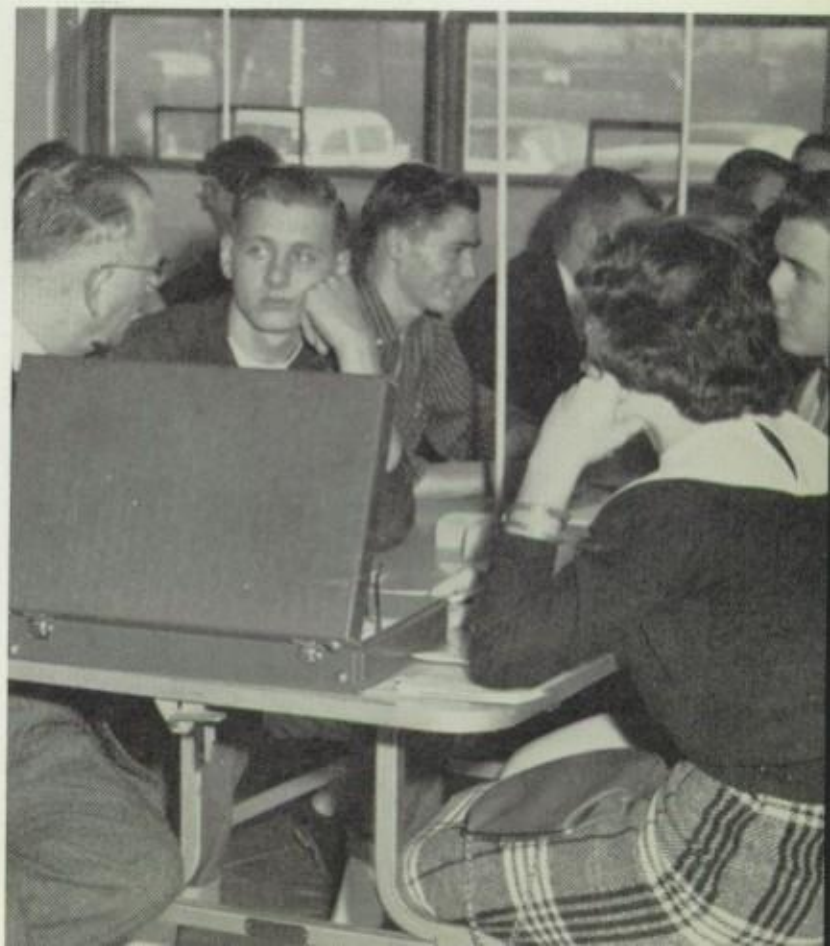
Last minute changes, which are always to be made, are done at rehearsal under the direction of Mrs. Stewart.

FOOD AND TOYS CHEER TO OTHERS.

The Student Council collected food from the student body for Thanksgiving baskets, which are given to needy families so they, too, may have a wonderful Thanksgiving.

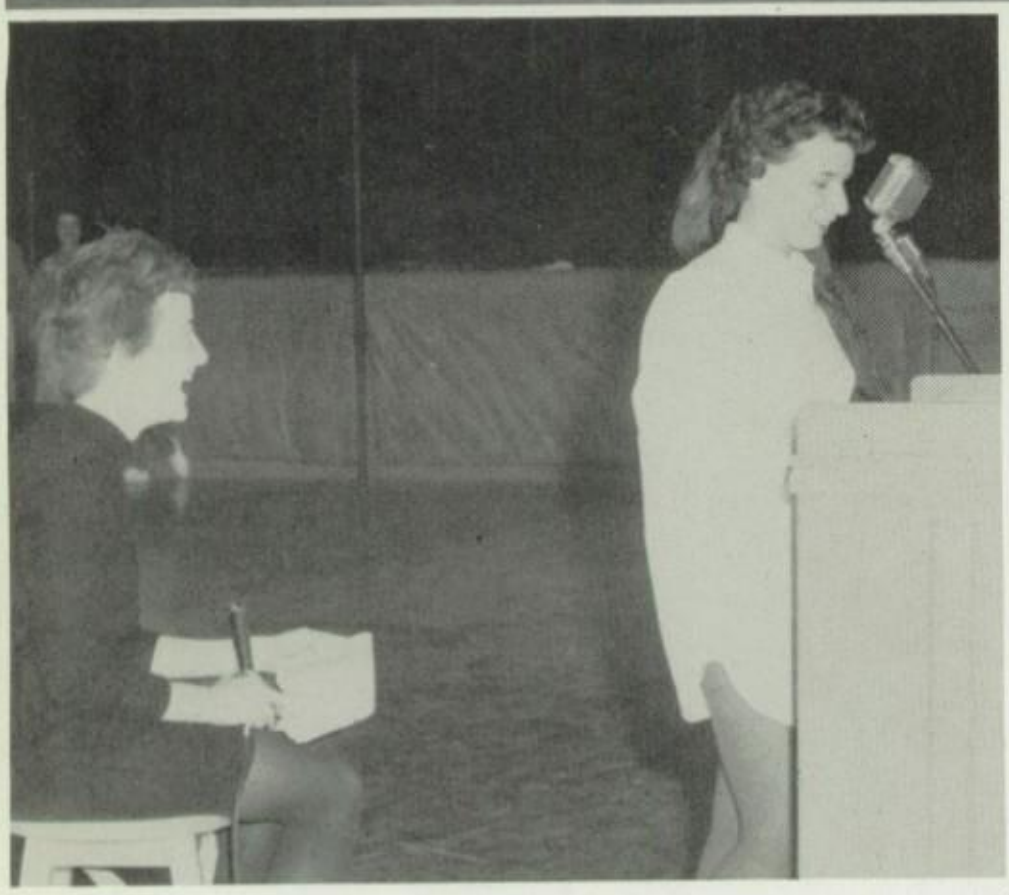
F.H.A. sponsored a stuffed toy dance; all toys collected went to a children's home, or to needy families in our area.

College Day is a great help for students. Counselers were more than willing to give out information about the college they represented. Representatives of more than forty colleges were present on December 8 for this annual affair.



Intentive listeners find talking to representatives from colleges very interesting.

ASSEMBLIES ADD AS WE BOG BOOKS



Besides being filled with Christmas activity, December brought several assemblies and special events. Mothers of all girls enrolled in Home Economics were invited for a Christmas Tea and a tour of the homemaking department. The girls spent several days preparing the hundreds of Christmas cookies which they proudly served to their mothers.

One of the best pep assemblies to be seen at Limestone this year was the "Beatnik Assembly" planned by the Pep Club. The beatnik girls were attired in multi-colored leotard tights and sweatshirts representing the schools of the Mid-State Eight. Students who were not accustomed to hearing beatniks talk were left "way out" because the girls gave quite a performance.

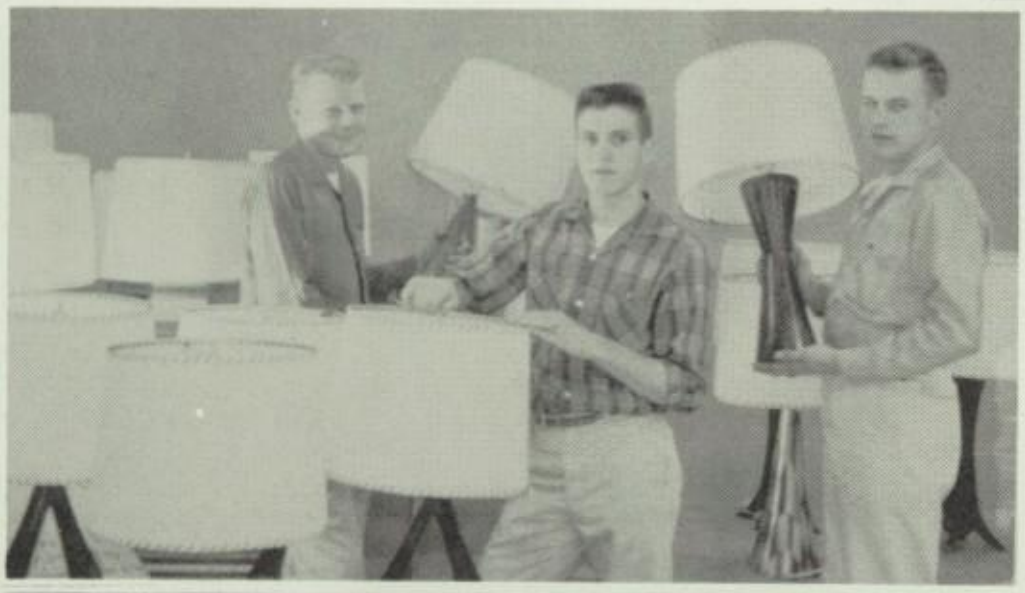
The Suzzy Q Club had an Italian spaghetti dinner for their members and last year's alumni. After the delicious meal, the girls adjourned to the lecture room where the alumni, who are now doing office work, gave excellent reports of their experiences in the business world. Several different phases of office work were represented. Bits of good advice were passed along to the students who will be seeking jobs upon graduation.

Upper picture: Many girls, and a few boys too, participated in a girls' style show assembly, which was based on the theme, "Fashion Dictionary."

Lower picture: The mothers, who visited the Home Economics departments at the Mothers' Tea, saw what the girls were working on and were served refreshments.



Upper left: A few of the shop boys show why they have been working so hard lately. The lamps are beautiful and were seen on display at Cilco.

Lower left: Attentive future secretaries listen while experienced graduates tell about their jobs.

PAGEANT CHRISTMAS

The month of December found Mrs. Krumpe and her music department hustling and bustling in preparation for the annual Christmas program.

Once again Mrs. Krumpe spent many hours of work for the choir presentation at Christmas. Although it sometimes seemed like an endless job, she was well rewarded with the fine performance. The appreciation of the Limestone Community was shown by the spectators in attendance at the Christmas pageant on December 17.

This year the A Cappella Choir presented "A Christmas Song." Members of the senior class portrayed characters of the pageant.

Many parents, teachers, and friends of the Limestone community spent the evening of December 17 enjoying the music of the high school choirs.

HIGHLIGHTS SEASON

A nativity scene, assembled by members of the choir, was the center of attraction by all. It proved to be both beautiful and inspiring.

Starry-eyed students dance to the dreamy music of Cary Robarts, Jr. and his orchestra at the "Silver Bell Ball."

On the evening of December 22, 1959, students rendezvoused in our gaily decorated gym at the Silver Bell Ball. The gym was converted into an attractive ballroom. An enormous silver bell, accented with red and green streamers, hung from the center. Eleven-thirty found the students leaving for their favorite dinner stop to top off an evening of fun.

Grade schools welcomed the students of Limestone and their Christmas carols. Many of the children joined in for a song or two.

VICE-VERSA INTO NEW

Semester exams were given on January 17 and 18. On these two days school was dismissed at 2:30 P.M. Most of the students came back on Monday with renewed vigor determined to raise their grades for the next semester. Many seniors found out that to graduate they had better put their noses to the grindstone. There seemed to be an excessive

Bonnie Gentry displays some of the talents which helped her to be chosen the Limestone Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow. The award, which is given on the basis of a written test, entitles her to compete for the Illinois title.

After semester exams, the school held a locker clean-up during the sixth hour. Some students found themselves staying after school to get the approval of the teachers who inspected them.

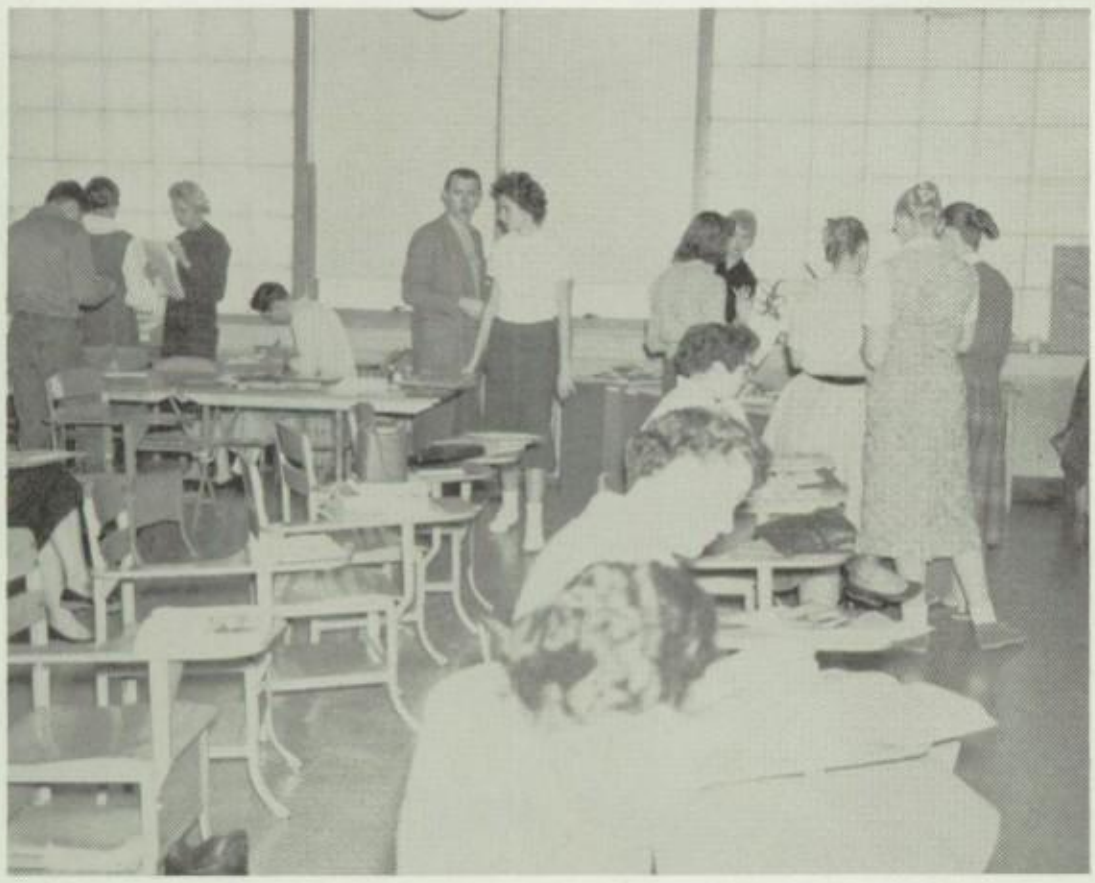
amount of pre-exam cramming this year. Could it be our tests are getting harder?

The vice-versa sock hop was a good opportunity for the girls to ask their favorite boyfriend. Of course, since the girls were footing the bill, not many refused to go. The vice-versa dances are something the boys look forward to every year.

The vice-versa sock hop drew a good crowd. It was an opportune moment for anyone who had an unusual pair of socks. The students enjoyed themselves in this relaxed manner.



A glimpse into room 148 on any morning before January 22 would tell you that the yearbook staff was busy trying to meet their second deadline. Many hours have to be spent during extra periods and after school to complete the yearbook on time.

Marty Monts gets a can of beans for the prize of having the best decorated socks at the vice-versa sock hop. It must have taken her hours to pin everything on them. She deserves the beans.

WINTER SNOWBALL

Representatives from Denmark, Sweden, Holland, and Switzerland tell organization presidents about their government, social life, schools, and first impressions of America.

Larry Hartness was really surprised when he was asked to appear on Limestone's version of "This Is Your Life." His many friends were there, including his mother and his boss.

Limestone boys listen attentively as a representative from one of the many branches explains the advantages of the Armed Forces.

ACTIVITIES AT LCHS

G.A.A. provided entertainment for students by sponsoring an after-game dance. The special occasion was Limestone's victory over Central.

The Vocalaires present a musical assembly. Their program was composed of folk songs, Negro spirituals and excerpts from Broadway musicals.

Carol Harris explains a bookkeeping problem to Mr. Morrisey's second hour class on Student Government Day.

Student Government Day found teachers and students switching places. Mr. Endsley is briefing his replacement, Mr. Quinn.

FIRST SENIOR IS HIGHLIGHT

To give our wrestling team a rousing send-off to the District tournament a pep assembly was held during first hour. Mr. Strode, in making his first speaking appearance before the student body, introduced his boys and gave us his comments on the wrestling season.

January 28 was a big night for the members of F.H.A. They held a family night potluck which had been planned by their chapter mothers. The program included movies for the children and a speaker from India. Marilyn Overturf, Janice Doubet, and Joanne Eisle are shown chatting with the speaker after the meeting.

On the evening of February 3, the L.C.H.S. band and the area grade school bands presented a concert. Each band played their own selections and then Mr. Kent Campbell directed them in a mass performance. "Avalon Nights" and "Chalma" were two of the numbers.

For a February assembly the student body was entertained by Lou Gaeta, an expe on falconry. He exhibited several of his trained birds which included a rare Europea owl, two golden eagles, a falcon, and a vulture. His birds have appeared in such pu licized movies as Ben Hur and The Ten Commandments.

DINNER DANCE OF FEBRUARY

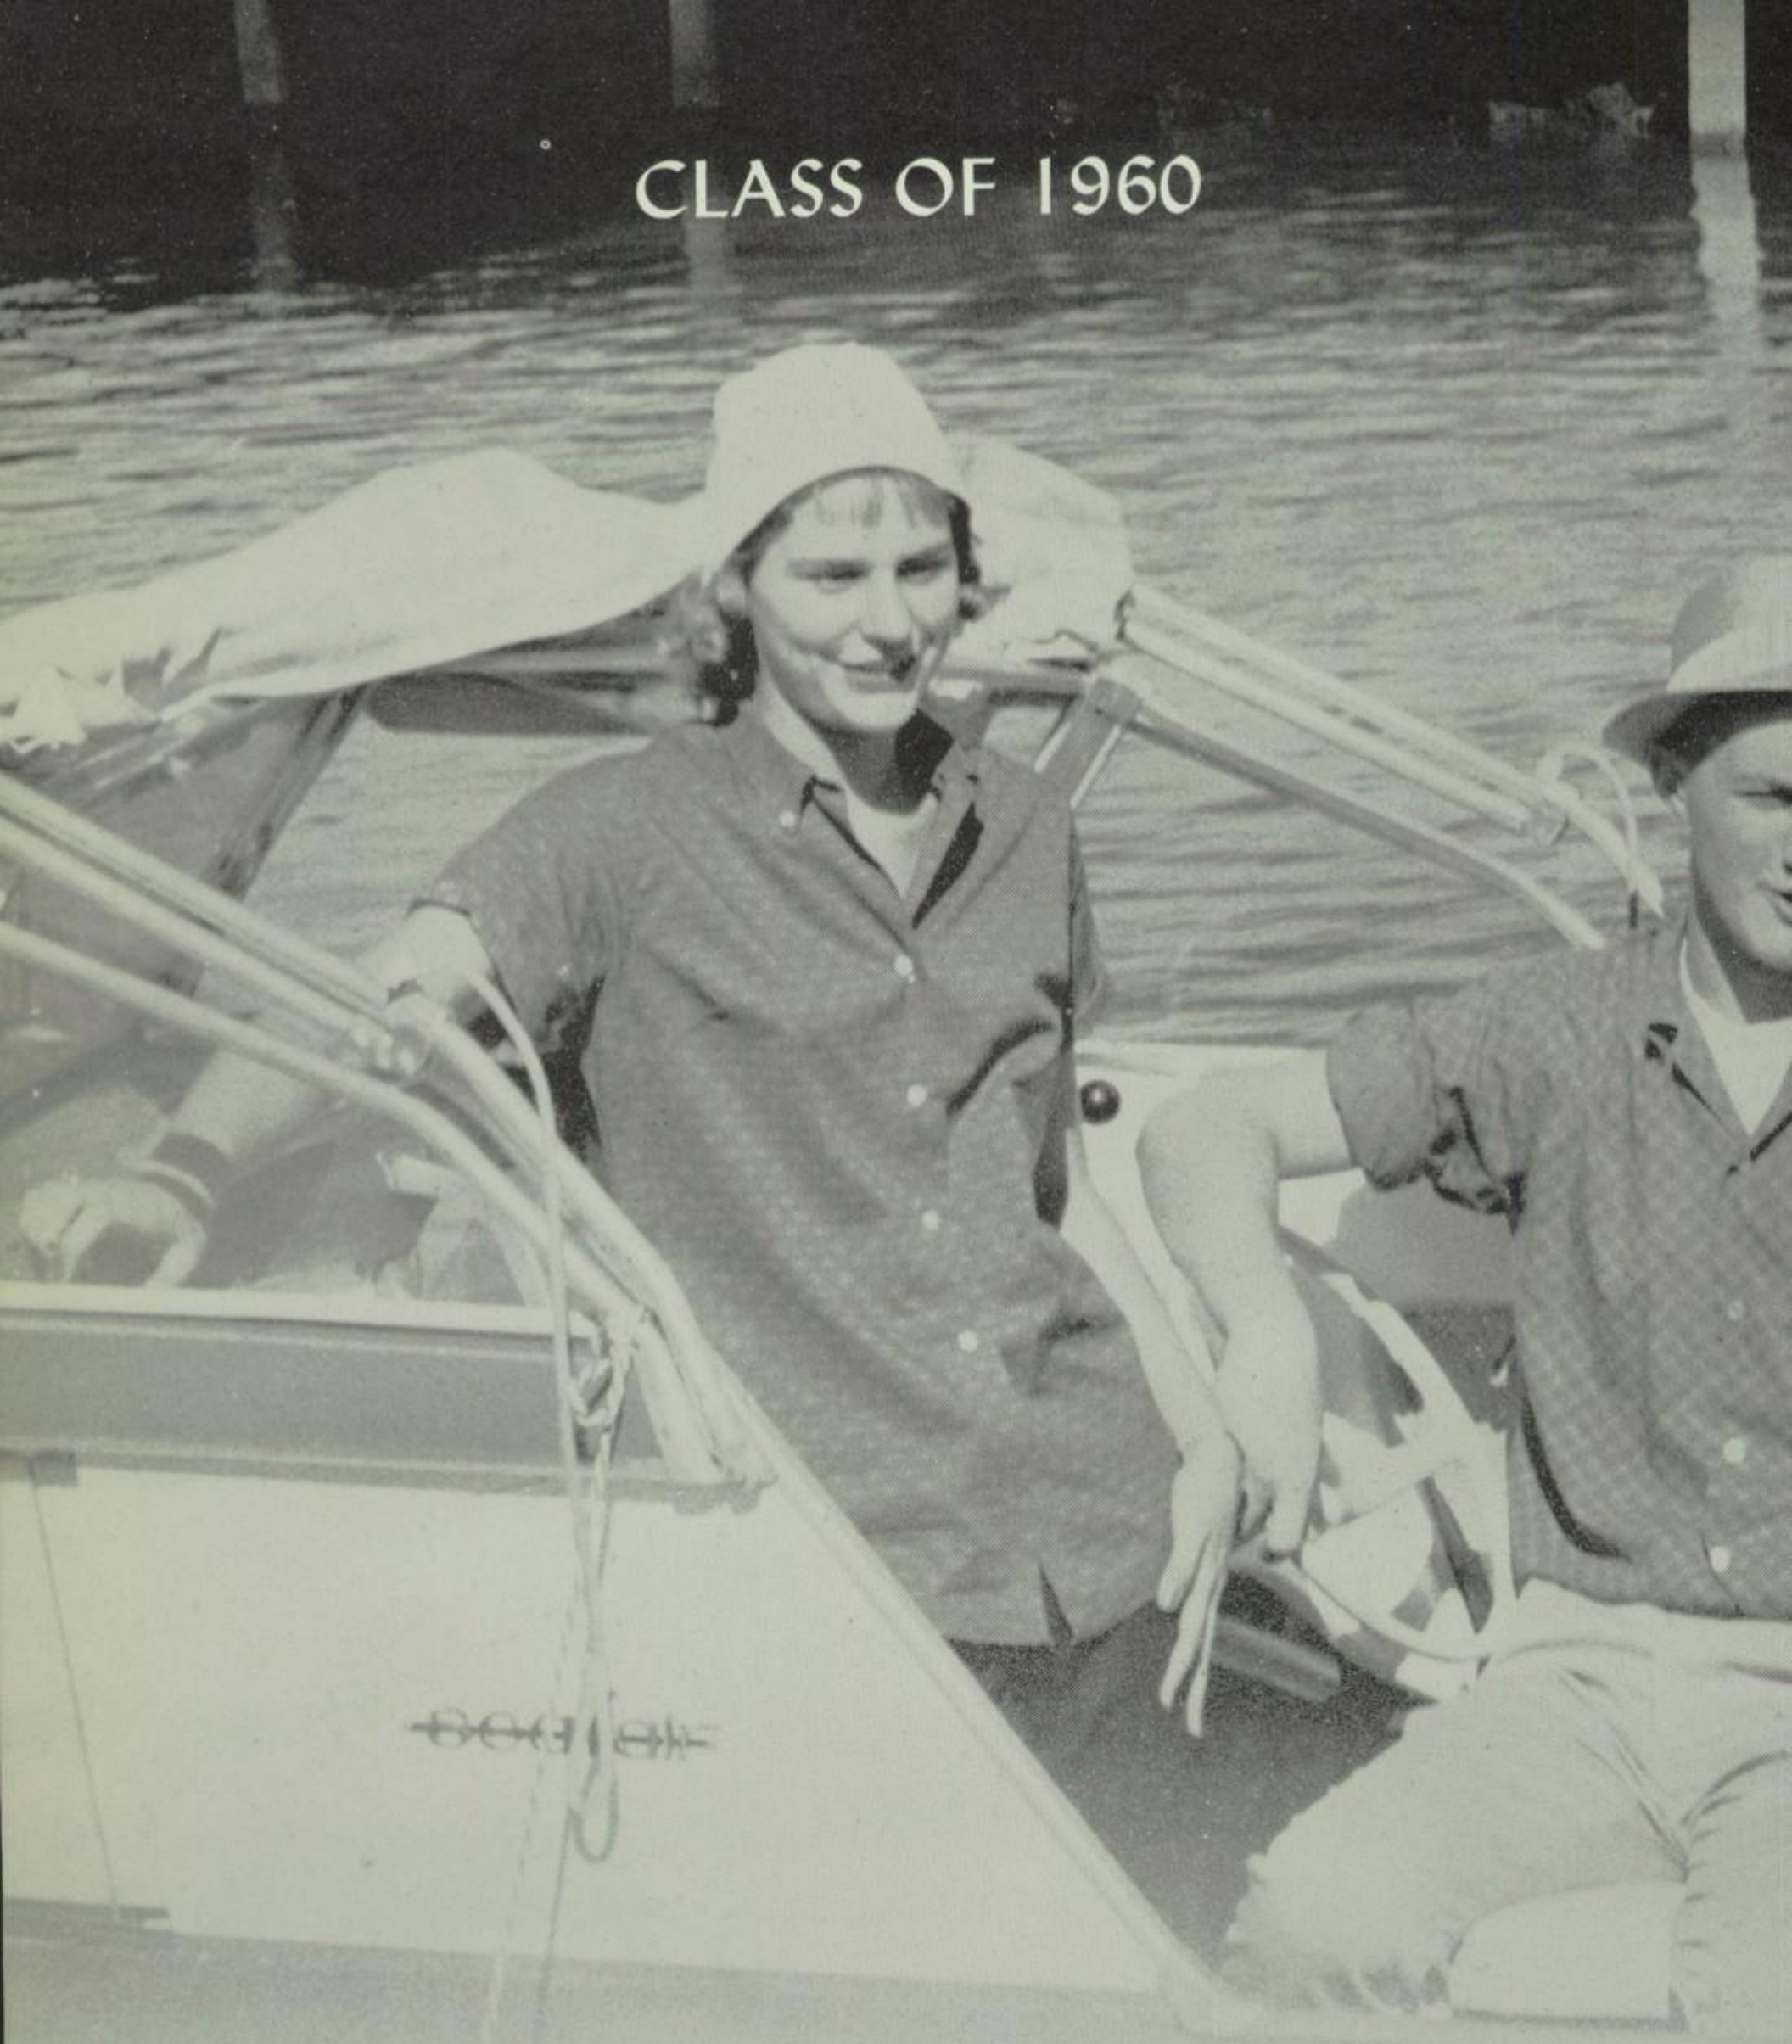
Near the close of Lou Gaeta's assembly, he asked for a volunteer from the audience. Ellen Ector, not knowing what was to happen, was chosen. Ellen holds out her arm while Mr. Gaeta brings one of his American eagles to rest on her hand. From the expression on her face, we're not sure she enjoyed it.

On February 2 and 3 Mr. Kent Campbell from Bradley conducted a clinic for all band members. During the day he held sectional rehearsals to help students improve their individual parts. Two hours were spent practicing with the full band.

The Seniors and their guests attended a Limestone first, a dinner-dance at the Hotel Jefferson on February 11. Baked swiss steak, corn, salad, milk, and sherbert made up the delicious menu. Guests of honor included the administration and class advisors.

At 8:30 the tables in the Gold Room were cleared from the floor, the orchestra took its place on the bandstand, and the couples danced until 11:30. During the evening, entertainment was provided by several of our talented seniors.

CLASS OF 1960



We're seniors now. It's hard to believe, but it's really true. My how the past four years have whizzed by! It seems like only yesterday that we entered Limestone for the first time as freshmen.

Several seniors showed their executive ability this year. Included in this group were our class officers. Roger Ball was elected president; Dean Meier, vice-president; Rosie Grafelman, secretary, and Dave Deeds, treasurer.

We all took American Problems and got a much better understanding of our complex society and its many problems. Beyond this, however, our curriculum varied. Some specialized in business courses; some in shop, and others in college preparatory courses.

Class rings arrived in October culminating a long and tiresome wait. How proud we were! It wasn't long, however, before many boys' rings disappeared, then reappeared on the hand of their girls.

The rain or defeat didn't dampen our spirits at Homecoming this year; our class float won second place. We also celebrated at the dance and were quite proud of Queen Joyce Farrow and her attendant, Judy Bruce, who represented our class. The senior dinner-dance, "Sweetheart Serenade," and the Junior-Senior Prom were highlights of the winter and spring sessions.

Then the long awaited night arrived. It seemed like New Year's Eve as we waited to accept our diplomas. We remembered all the joys and sorrows of our high school days. "Pomp and Circumstance" replaced "Auld Lang Syne," as we left Limestone. In departing we had not only opened the door to a new year but a new future!

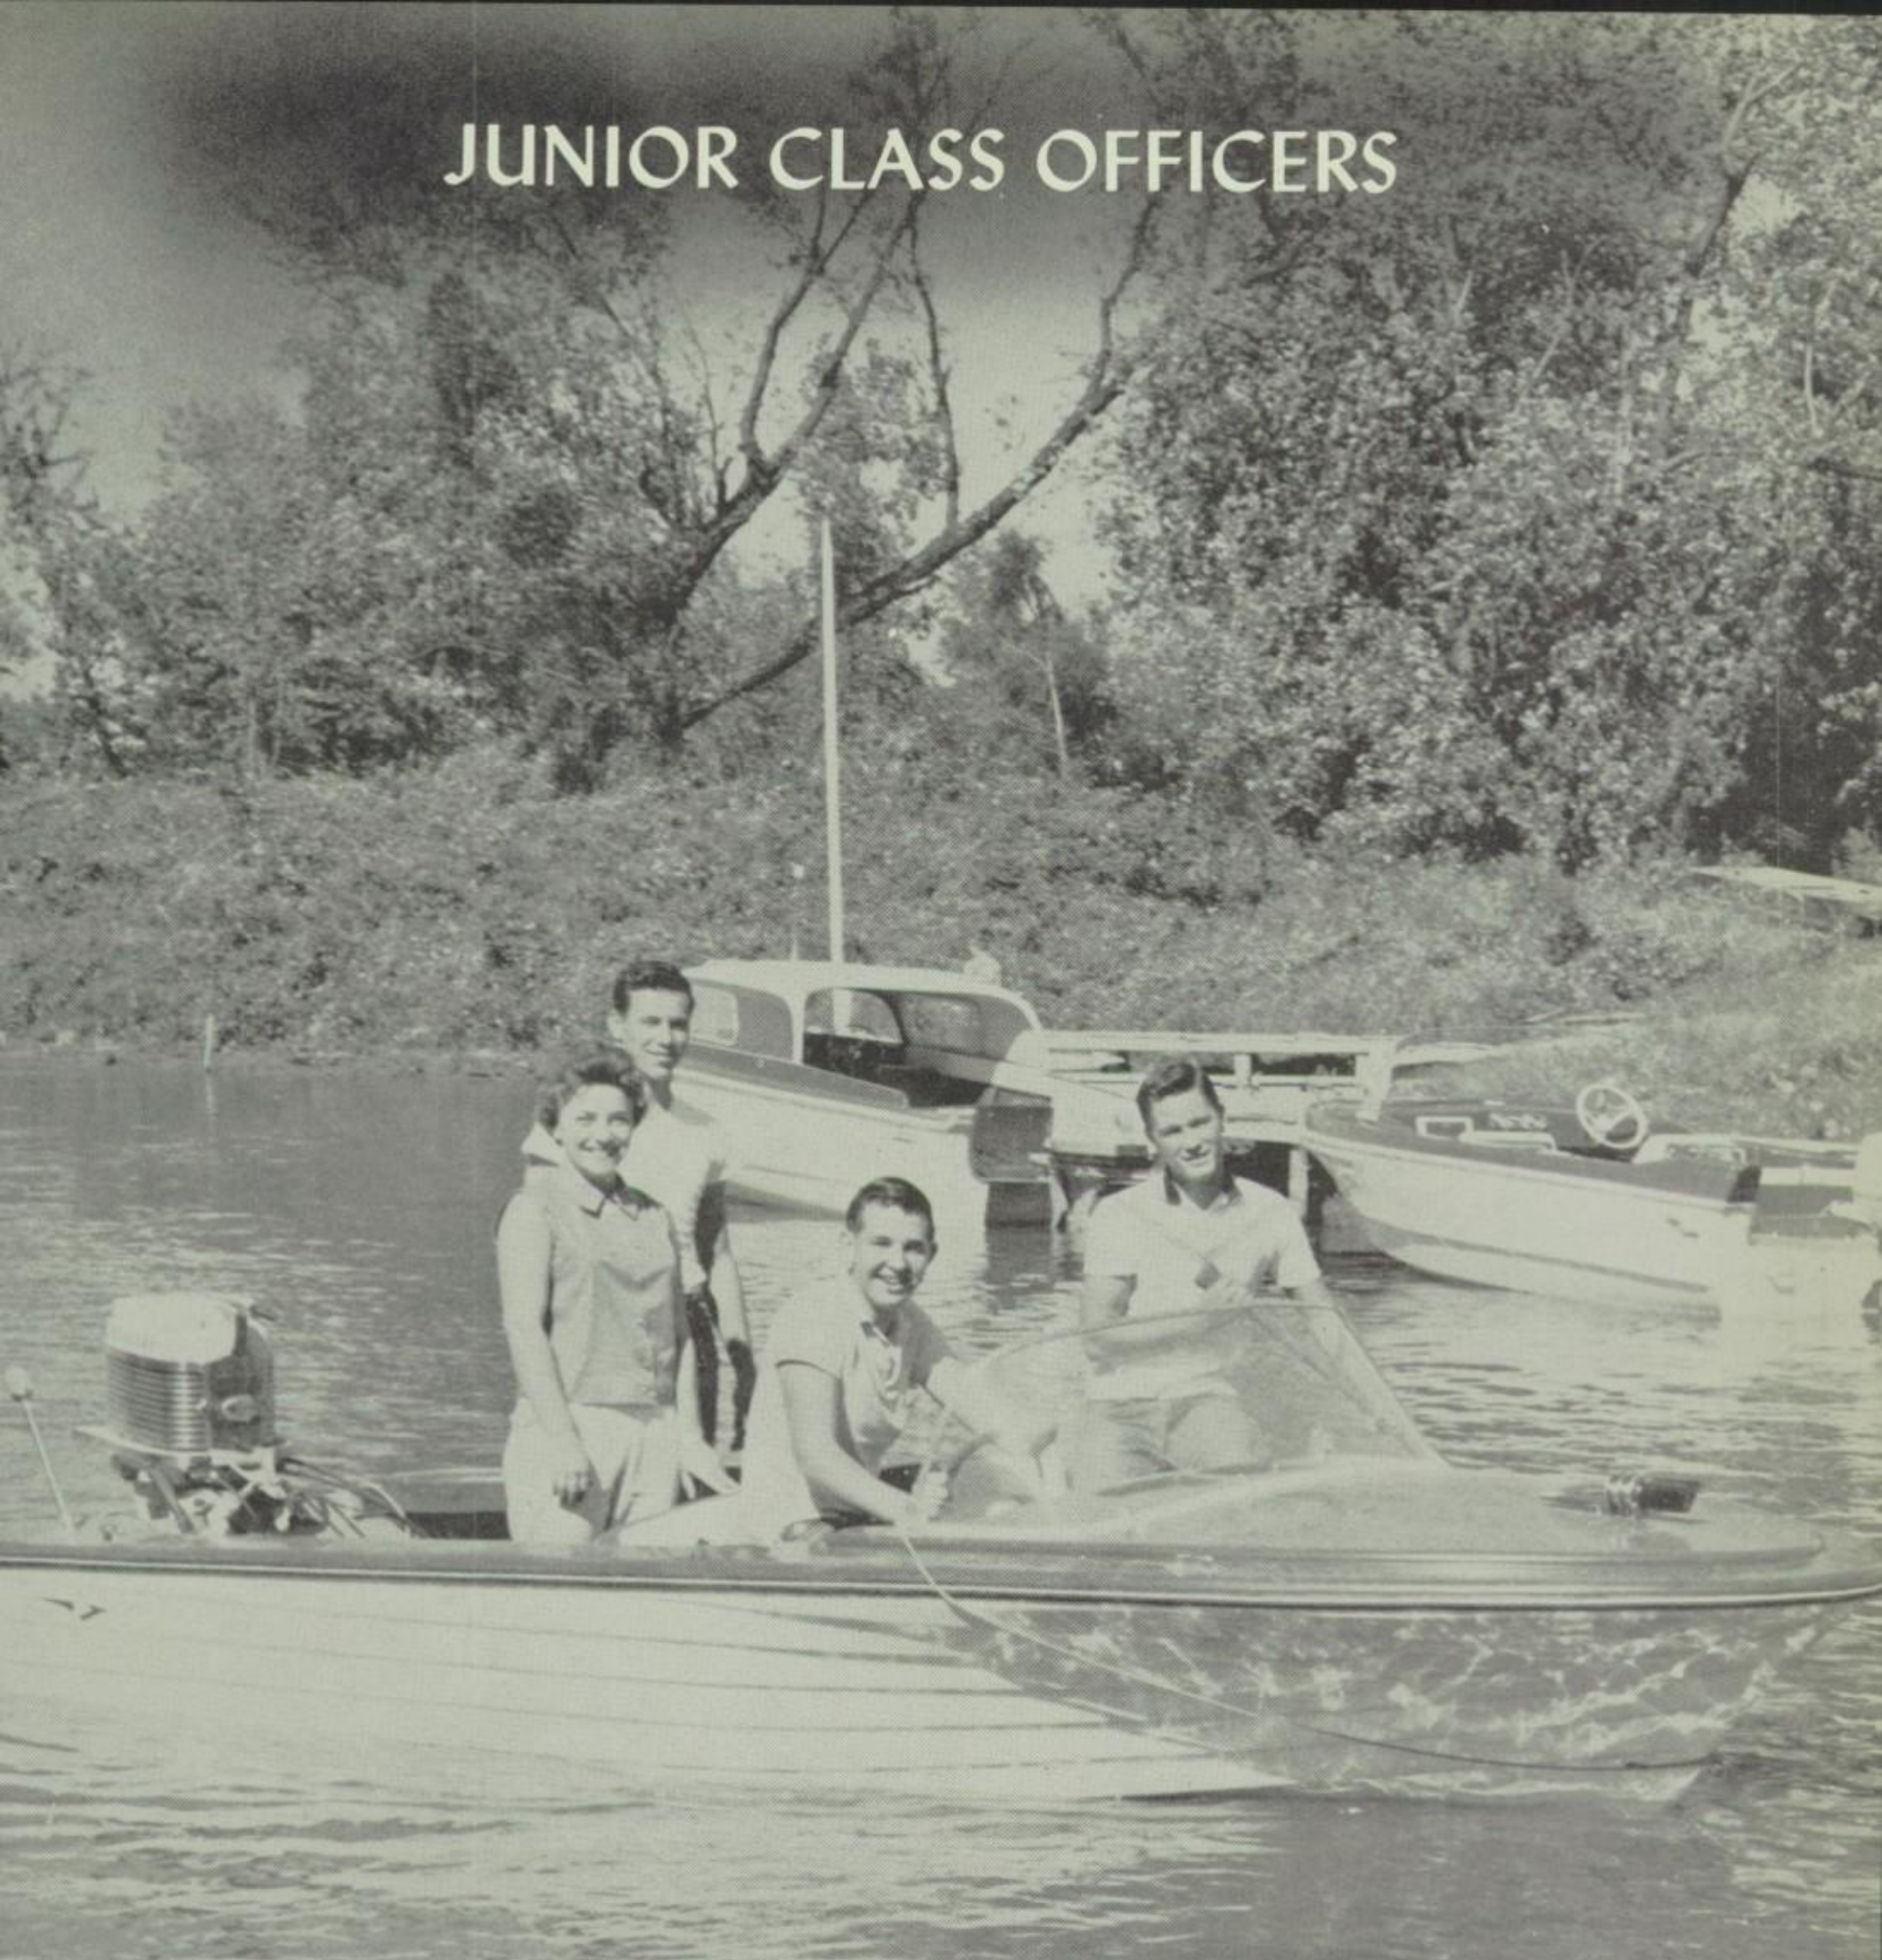
RESERVED FOR MY FAVORITE SENIORS

UNDERCLASSMEN

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS



Yes, I'm a member of the Junior Class. I guess I'm about average and may not be a genius, but I didn't fail any of my courses. What do I think about this past year? How can I explain! Just this year it seems as if we were right in the middle of things. There was so much work and so much fun that not another thing could be crammed into a day.

Most of my time was taken up by such school work as U.S. History, chemistry, Algebra II, typing, and English III. I'll never forget that term paper I worked so hard on. Through all the difficult studying though, I realize I'm learning something, getting ready to go on to something very worth while.

Perhaps the busiest in class dealings were our class officers: Steve Stevens, president; Larry Meinders, vice-president; Cheryl Thome, secretary; and Todd Garrison, treasurer.

During the year our class sponsored an after-game dance, an all-school dance, and sold ball point pens with the basketball schedule on them. We took a very large part in Homecoming. Our float won first prize! Of course, the greatest thing of all was the Prom. None of us will forget it.

Do you understand now why it is hard for me to explain? I've worked hard this year and had fun doing it, but I'm ready for the next one. I only hope I can keep on being in a busy flurry; I love it!

Eagerly awaiting the next two years, we sophomores have taken another big step in the stairway of learning. We took part in clubs and activities, and we know that soon we will have a chance to be leaders in them.

As sophomores we found ourselves out of doors collecting insects and leaves. Later on in the year, as our classmates had warned, the frightening experience of dissecting our first frog was upon us. However, our struggle ended in triumph and our adventure was now behind us. Most of us were engaged in writing our first term paper and we realized it was quite a task. Although a sigh of relief came when it was completed, we felt as if we had finally entered the world of accomplishment by hard work. In addition to our school subjects, we worked hard on our Homecoming float, building it around the song, "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia." Our money-making project was the selling of poodle pals and U. S. flags.

Our class officers took a hand in getting the projects and activities started. They were Tom Gibson, president; John Ector, vice-president; Corky Snedden, secretary; and Connie Foiles, treasurer. Two peppy gals chosen to represent our class as cheerleaders were Karen Reuter and Vonne Lee Johns. Sue Slane also did our class proud by reigning as Homecoming attendant.

The sophomore year was one of growing, learning, and playing. With these experiences behind us, we are ready for the challenges of the future.

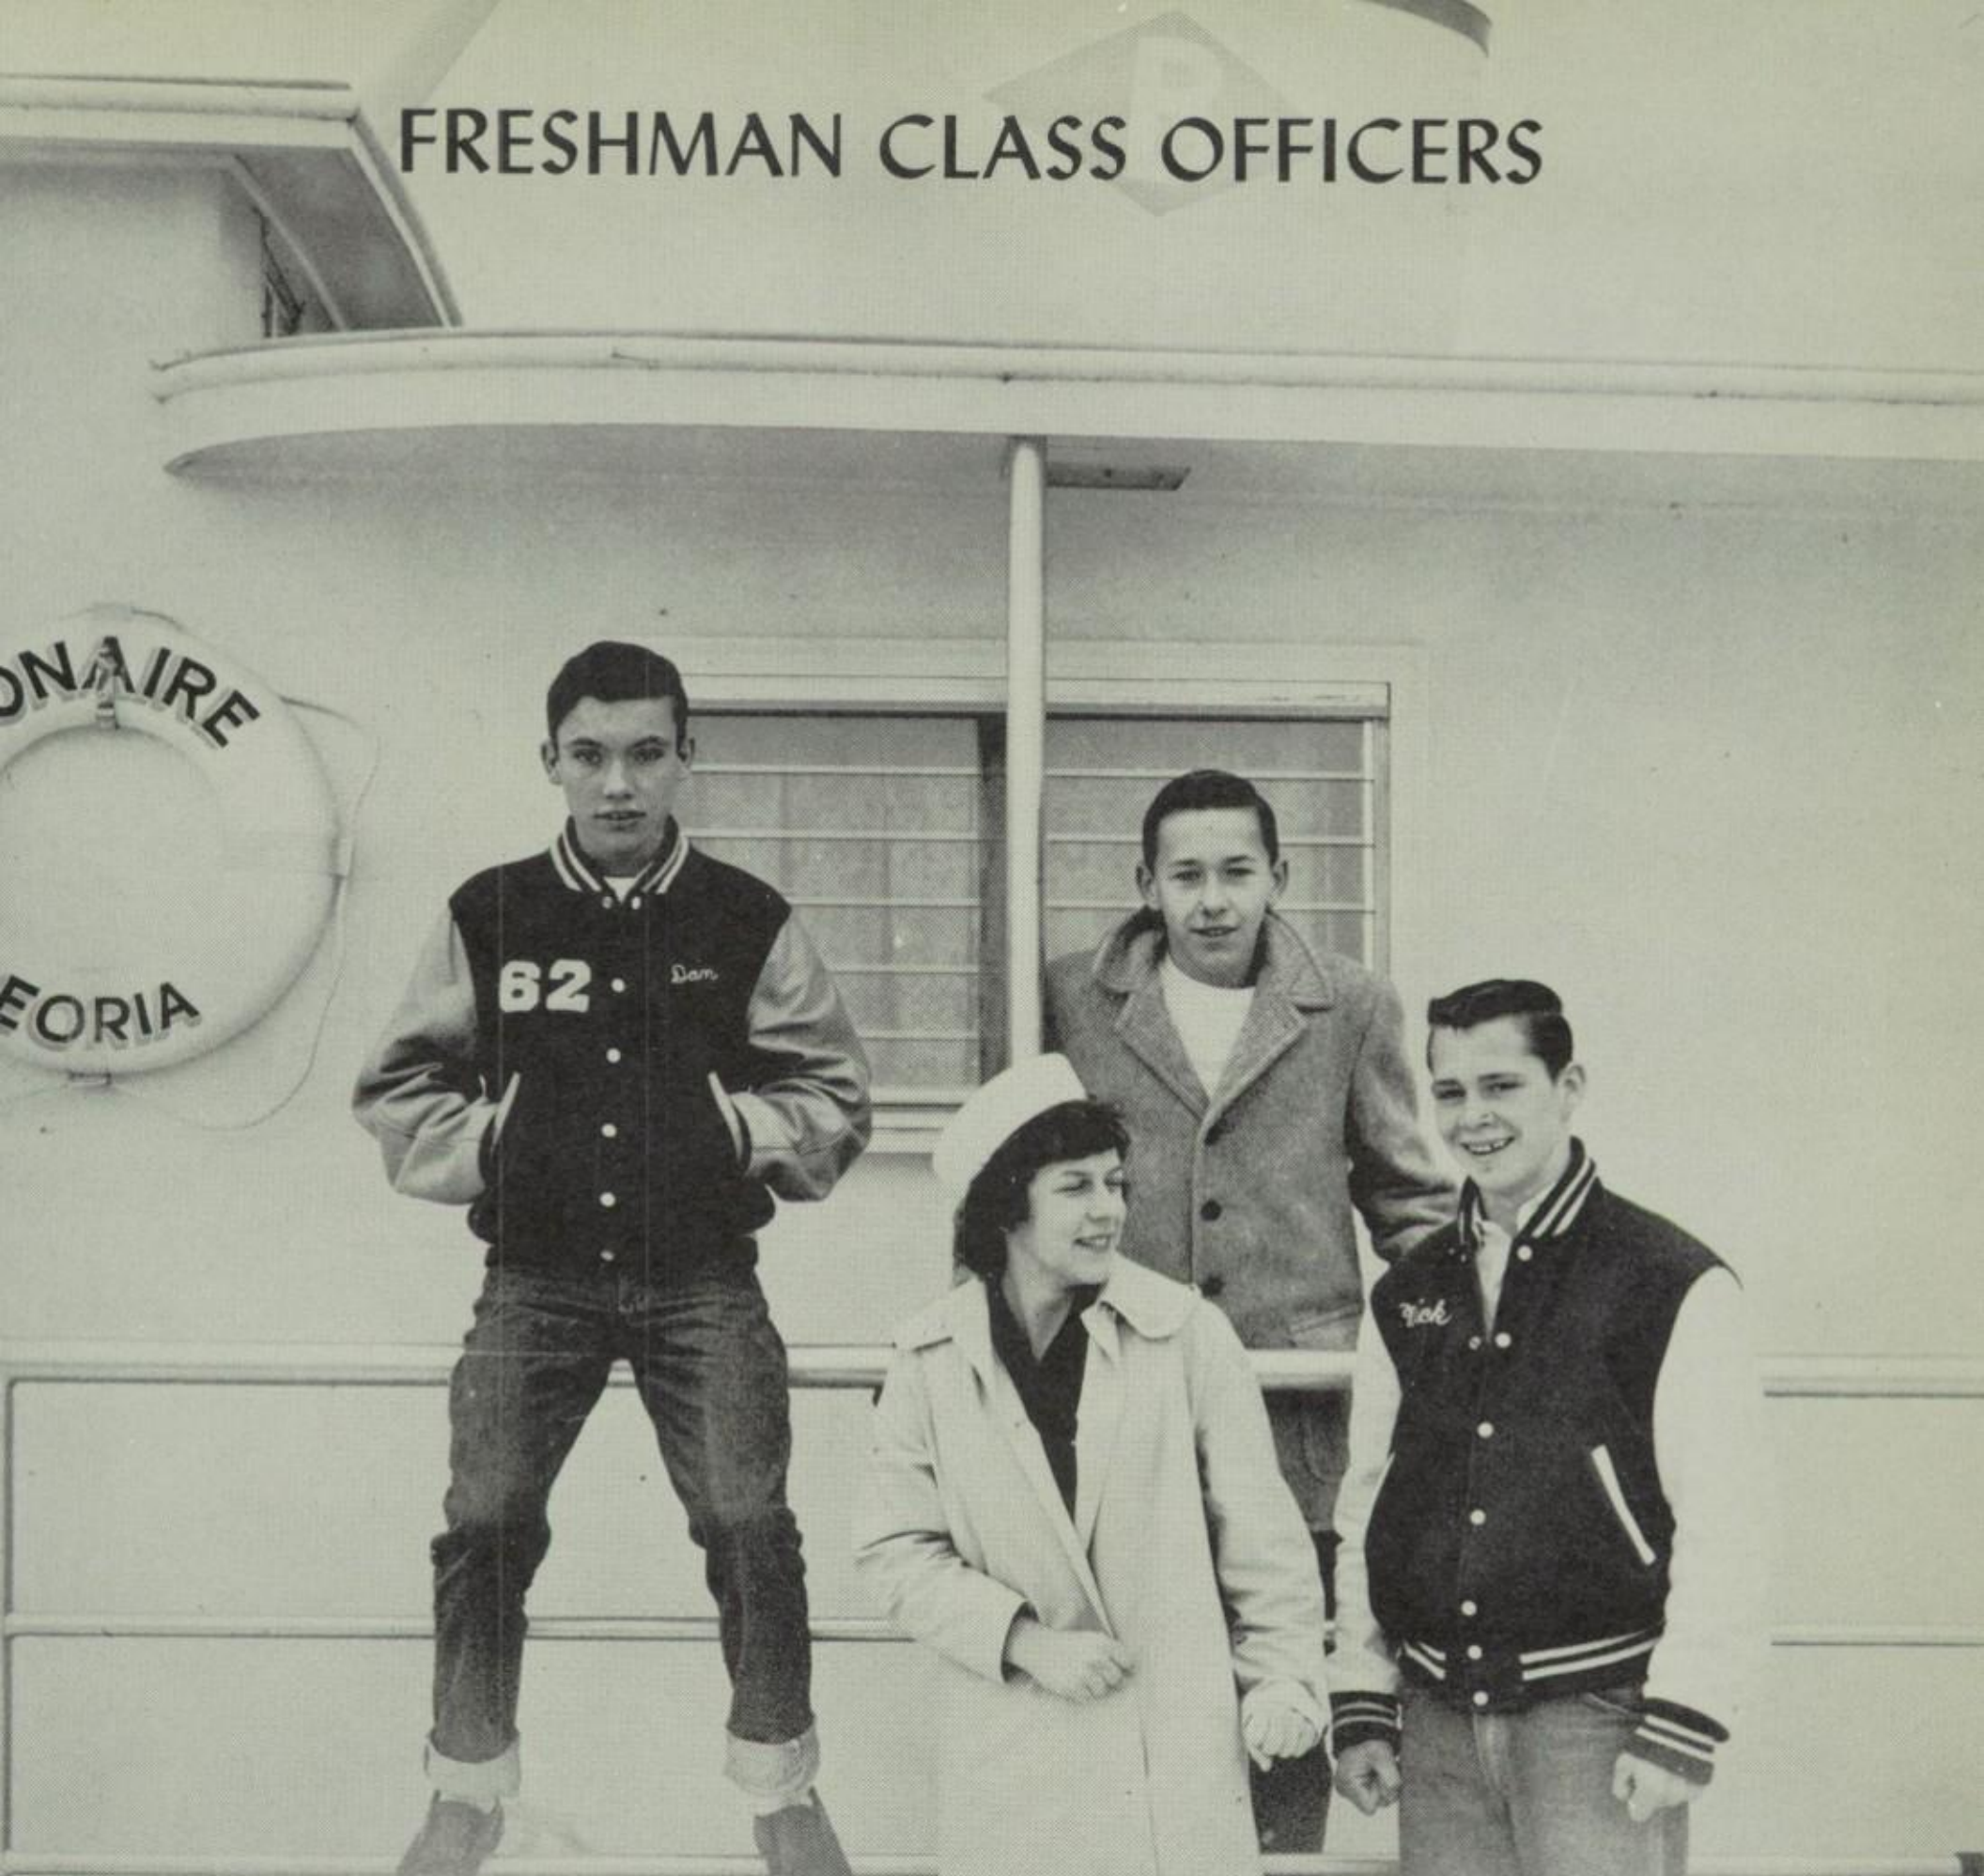
FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS



They've named us the green class. That's right, but I think we've done a good job of adapting to the school life. Although there was a ban on initiation, quite a few of us bore the signs of a royal welcome to Limestone.

As our leaders we chosen Frank Renner, president; Mickey Lockhart, vice-president; Karen Lakota, secretary; and Danny DeVos, treasurer. They worked hard to promote the advancement of our class.

Our first homecoming was an event that will long be remembered. By the way, you'll notice it was Mrs. Mee's freshman home room car that took the prize.

Getting acquainted was a big problem. The Student Council helped us by sponsoring the Freshman Mixer. Through the games and dancing, new friendships were started and old ones renewed.

Walking down the hall you'll smell that wonderful aroma of the Home Economics classes hard at work; listen to the whur-r of the sewing machines. The freshman boys, meanwhile, are busy fifth hour with beginning shops.

All of us had quite a shocking experience with electricity in General Science. We fought our way through English, and imagine the surprise when we won out over every verb and noun. All of us are whizzes at calculation after a year of General Math or Algebra I.

What do I think of high school? I love it! There's so much to learn and so many things to do. Yes, we've all enjoyed our freshman year and look with anticipation to three more action-packed years at Limestone.

it's my turn...

Now, it's my turn to earn my place in our community . . . in our country. Someone before me had his turn . . . someone built the schools I attended . . . someone subscribed to the hospital building fund . . . someone worked on the fund drives for church and charity . . . on Scout committees . . . on the thousand and one civic affairs that weave strength and character into this country of ours.

Someone . . . in fact, many . . . were good citizens before me.

Now, it's my turn to take up the responsibilities of citizenship. I know I will be a good citizen only if I make up my mind to be . . . that I will reap the rewards of good citizenship only if I invest in them . . . that I and millions like me will determine the kind of community and country we will live in. Strong communities mean a strong Nation.

This brings us to the conclusion of another school year. Although it is but a short portion of our journey along the river of life, it has been an eventful one. We, the Amulet Staff, have tried to capture the highlights of this journey in the pages of this book. Although we know that all of the future will not be "smooth sailing," we hope that each of you will successfully weather the storms of life.

We wish to express our grateful appreciation to the following people who helped to bring this yearbook to you.

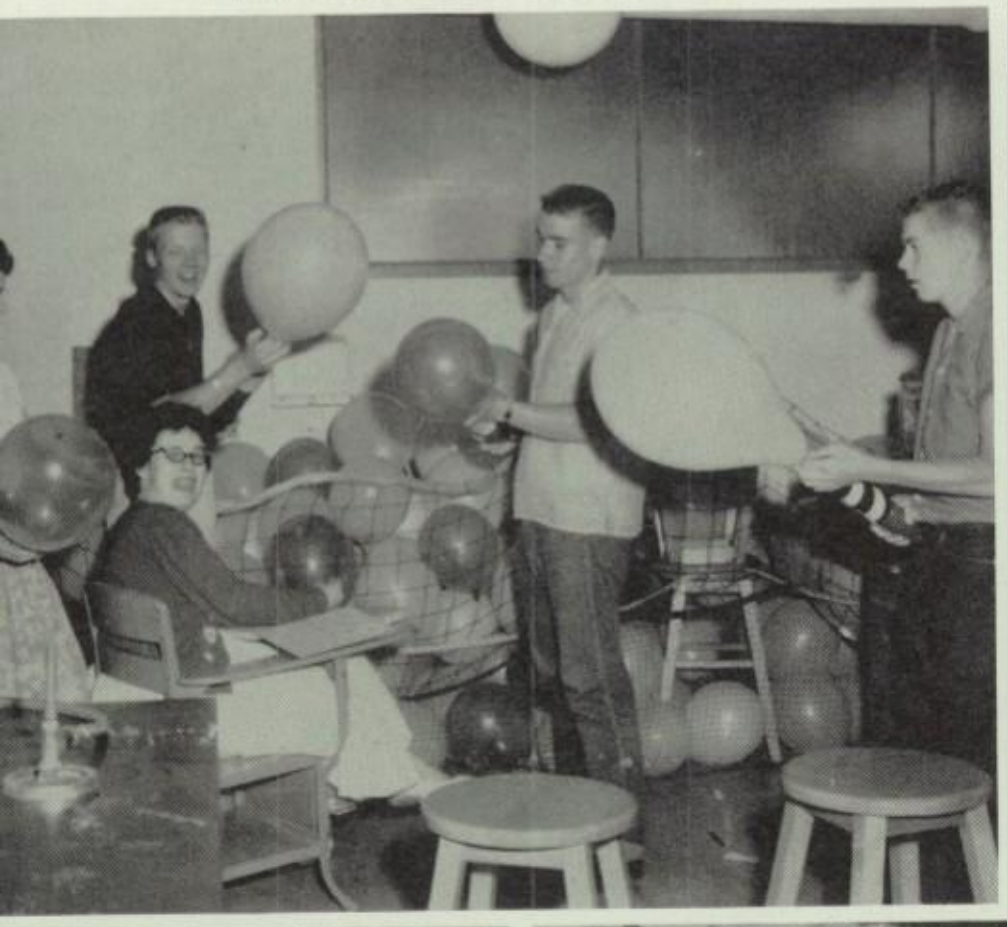
LIMESTONE COMMUNITY HIGH SCHOOL PEORIA, ILLINOIS



LCHS ACTIVITI
BUSY AROUN

The F.H.A.-G.A.A. Slumber Party was just too much for this tired group of freshmen; they had to yield to the Sandman at 2:30 A. M.

Who sleeps at a slumber party? We're hungry! After two hours of games, ranging from volleyball to pillow fights, their ravenous appetites devoured stacks and sacks of food.

The Winter Sports Banquet sponsored by the Boosters Club featured Tom Kelly as the main speaker. This annual affair honors the Wrestling and Basketball teams.

Introduced by coach Gene Strode, these letter-winning wrestlers st to receive their awards. Loyal cheerleaders patiently await their turn

EEP STUDENTS
HE CLOCK

The Donkey Basketball Game starred our own Bronco Boyle and Poncho Noel in a low-scoring contest against the Limestone merchants.

The Bradley Chorale, led by Mr. Davis, gave a very impressive assembly on March 29th. Two former LCHS students, Bill Lauterbach and Ron Burdette, are members of this choir.

Beverly Lawless, Ted Aupperle, Anita Johnson, and Dave Papendick enact a scene from the play, "The Happy Journey to Trenton and Camden."

Mr. Bob Stewart helps Steve Stevens with his make-up in preparation for his hilarious part in the one-act play, "How to Capture and Keep a Husband."

The new members inducted into the National Honor Society were, FIRST ROW: K. Dawson, A. Johnson, C. Thome, J. Hrvatin. SECOND ROW: S. McClain, D. Meier, M. Randolph, J. Wormer, S. Chitwood, M. Harris. THIRD ROW: G. Iwasiuk, L. Gilmore, H. Pedigo, R. Harmeson, C. Gibson. FOURTH ROW: T. Gibson, E. Monroe, S. Stevens.

Ted Banks gave an interesting account of the many experiences he has had as an explorer. Here he displays a waterproof coat made of walrus intestine.

Limestone's band gave an excellent performance at its Spring Concert enjoyed by everyone who attended.

SENIOR HOP ROARIN'

The Girls' Choir, making its first appearance in the Spring Festival, gave a fine performance.

These freshman girls planned and prepared a Hawaiian party as part of their Home Ec. training. A hula demonstration was the highlight of the affair.

On April 27, all girls enrolled in Home Economics took part in their annual style show. These girls are required to model the dresses they've made in order to receive a satisfactory grade for the semester. Here Josephine Spengler, Wanda Hurn, and Marilyn Dills model the dresses they made.

FEATURES TWENTIES

As entertainment at the Junior-Senior Hop these seniors girls did the Charleston, a dance popular in the '20's.

EXCITING

A variety of new and exciting booths awaited the throng who attended the carnival, May-day Madness, on May 7.

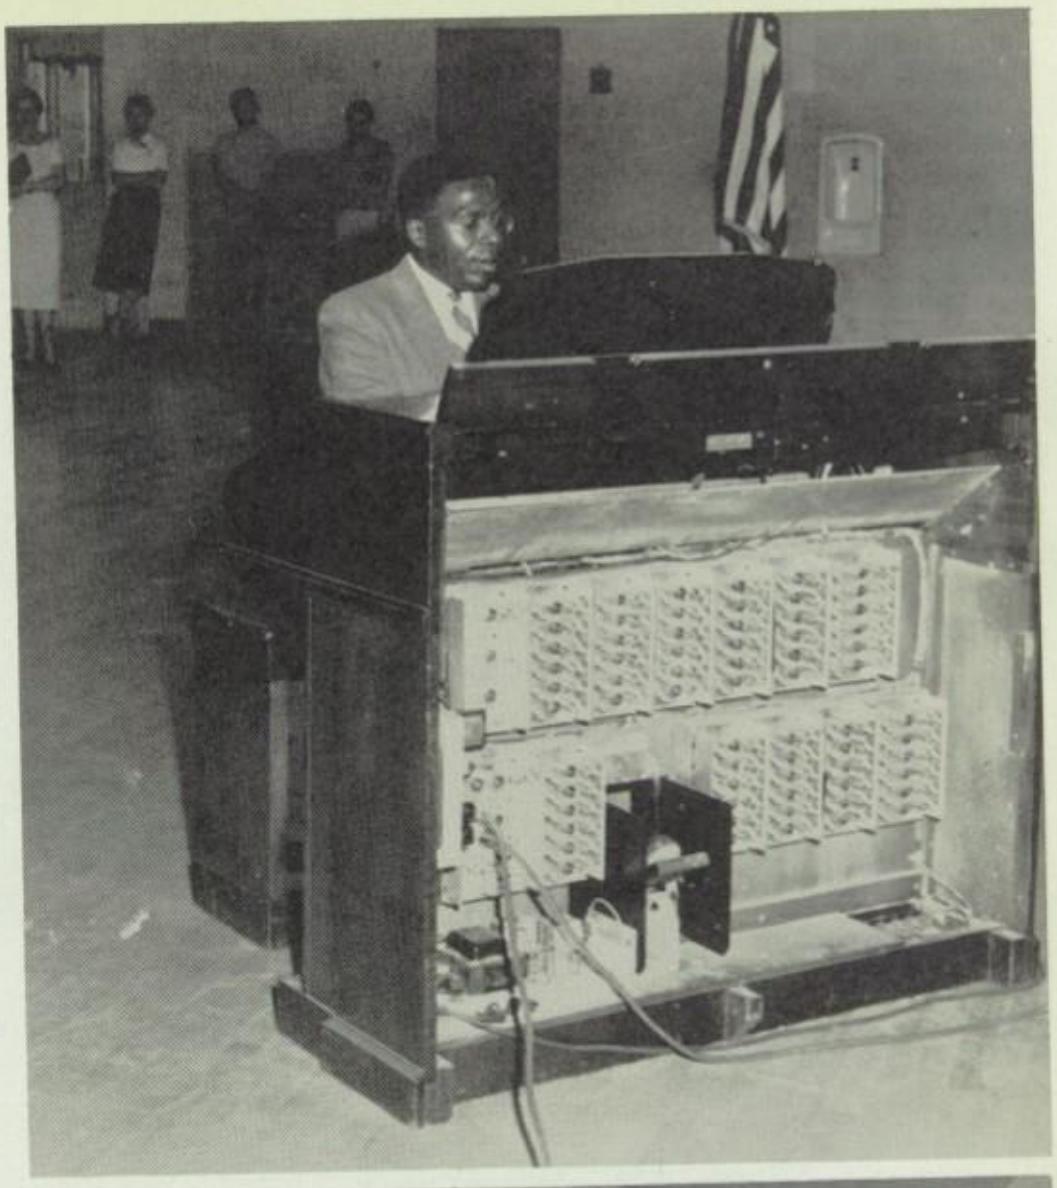
Competition was keen for positions on Student Council this year.

This booth, sponsored by the Senior class, was one of the favorites of the carnival goers. It gave the expert golfers a chance to show their skill.

Mayday Madness was considered a great success by the huge crowd that filled the gym to attend the annual Student Council sponsored carnival.

SPONSORS EVENTS

The rafters rang and students sat enthralled as Kenneth Goodman demonstrated the wonders of the organ.



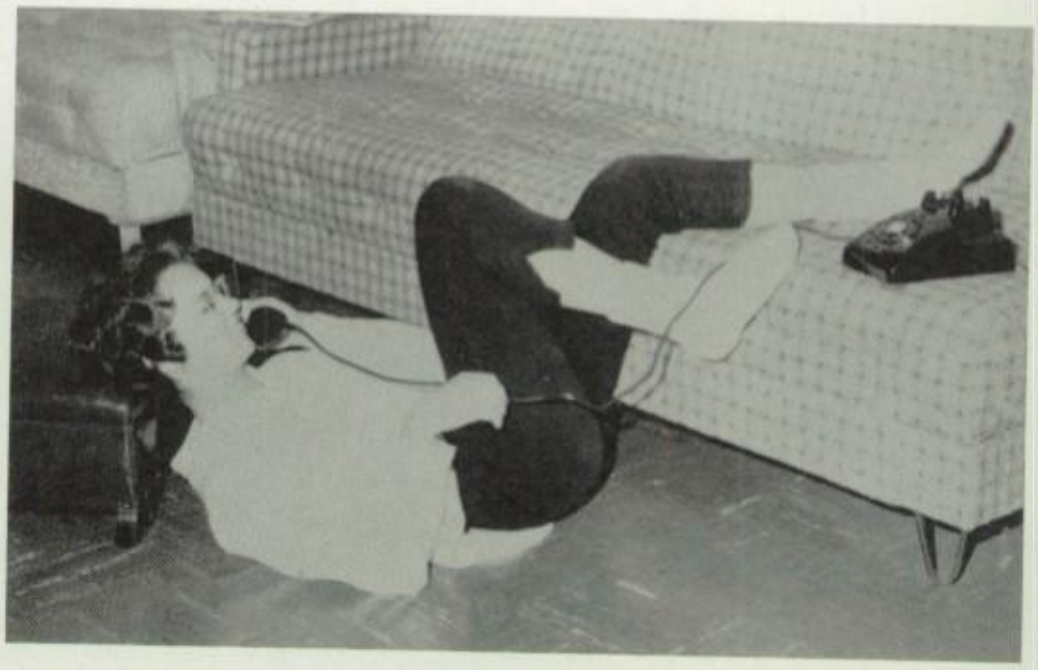
President-elect, Terry Gibson, is seen during his campaign speech.

"On the Beam" was the name of this interesting science assembly which explained the uses of radio waves. Sandy Hoffman helps with the demonstration.

To show the gratitude felt for all the help received, the Student Council sponsored an "Appreciation Night for Parents."

PROM GOES

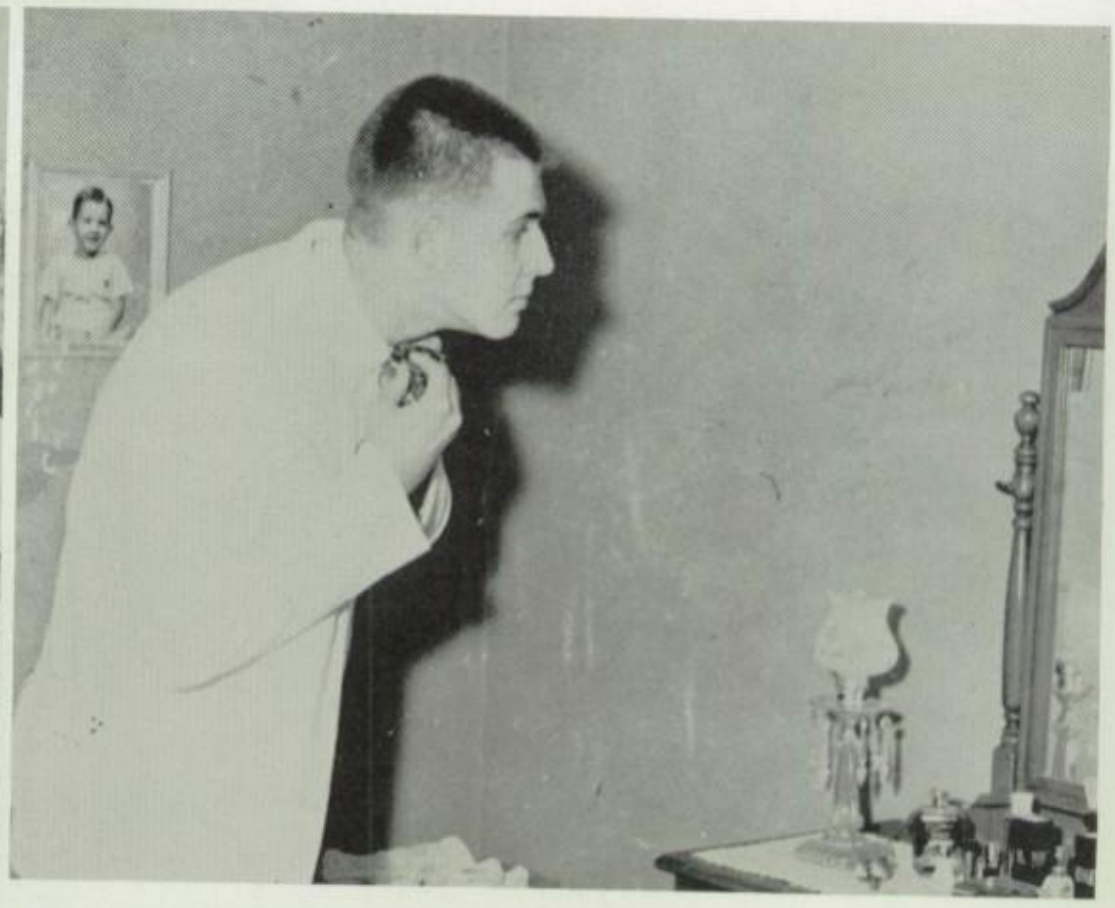
Steve Stevens, class president, is on the phone rechecking the Prom preparations.



Marcia Randolph makes last minute appointments and plans for the evening ahead.

Paper, glue, and hard work were the keys to success for the Prom decorations. Friday night preceeding the Prom found many Juniors working furiously in the gym.

Ho, hum! Cherish the sleep you have just gotten, Nancy, a full day and night have been planned for you.



Everything must look perfect for the wonderful evening ahead. Be sure your tie is straight, Todd.

MARDI GRAS

Sighs and smiles escape from formaled girls as they are presented with gorgeous corsages.

The magical atmosphere of a night at the Mardi Gras falls on each couple as they arrive.

With all the hard work completed, flowers, formals, and a beautiful gym set the scene for a night at the Mardi Gras. This fabulous night will be long remembered by everyone who attended.

After the crowning of the king and queen, the regal couple proudly lead the grand march.

Returning from "The Gallant Hours," prom-goers feasted on ham and eggs served by the Boosters' Club.

RAIN AND LOSSES DAMPEN

VARSITY—STANDING: D. Thompson, G. Thomason, B. Hill, B. Barclay, J. Simpson, D. Woods, H. Lane, T. Hattermann, P. Quinn, M. Zears. KNEELING: R. Ruyle, J. Davis, A. Hamm, T. Gibson, E. Monroe, D. Clemons, D. Sanders, D. Meier, Mr. Millard.

In the final game of the regular season, Dick Clemons slams a base hit against Woodruff. Consistent hitting and alert fielding earned him the top center field position on the Mid-State Eight all-conference team.

The Rocket baseball team, fighting rain and cold weather with only a handful of veterans, finished the season with a dismal 6-15 record. Without a doubt, the best game of the season was the 2-1 pitchers' duel which they lost to highly-favored Manual in the District.

Dean Meier and Terry Hattermann were elected co-captains by their teammates; Dick Clemons was chosen Most Valuable Player and Don Thompson, Most Improved.

FROSH—STANDING: B. Harris, G. Sweckard, T. Hunt, R. Freeze, G. Tutwiler, R. Young, R. Abele, M. Lockhart, Mr. Boyle. KNEELING: E. Sanders, K. Hacker, G. Schuster, G. Knight, E. Newburn, F. Renner.

ROCKETS' SPRING SPORTS

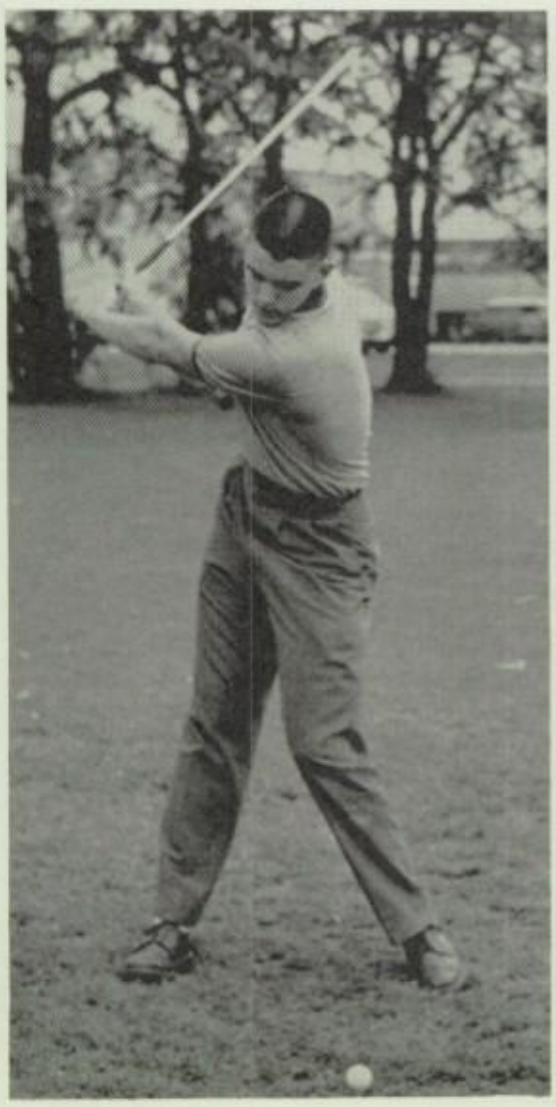
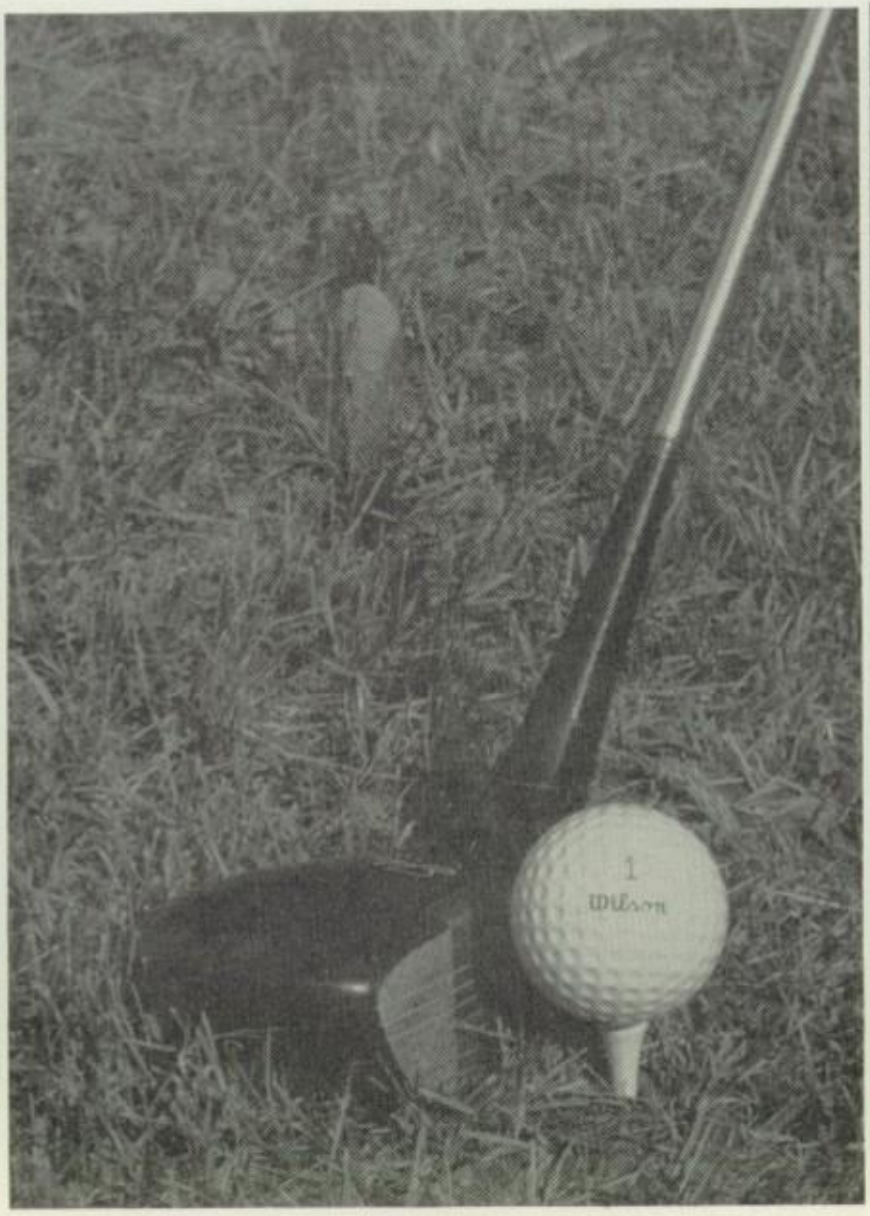
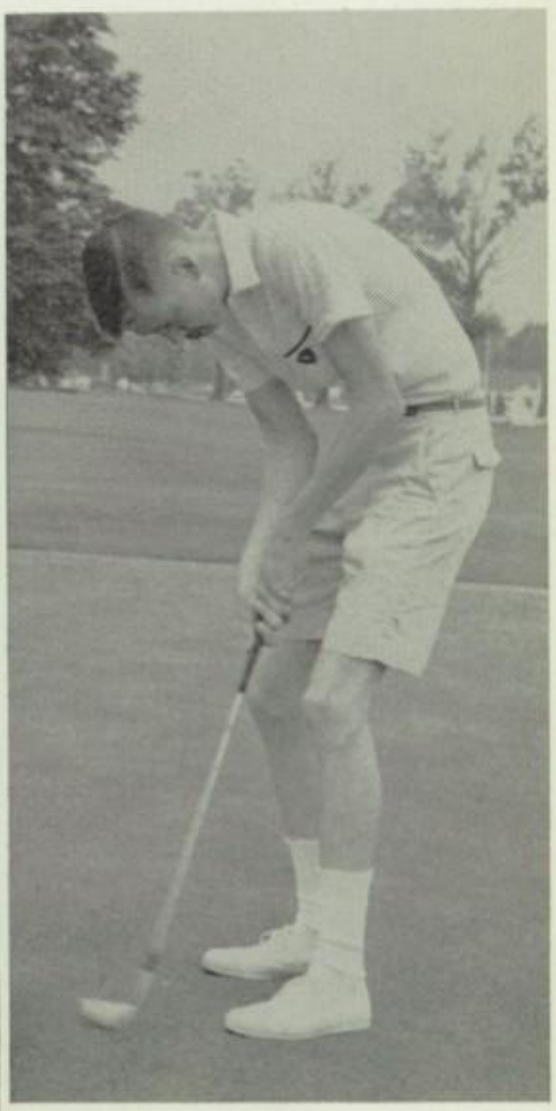
All Spring sports were slowed down this year by incessant rain and cold weather, and Limestone's golf team was no exception. Participating in only 11 meets, they finished the season with 4 wins and 7 losses.

Bill Stagg, a senior, consistently led the squad and was chosen captain by his teammates. Other departing seniors are Bob Blazek, Tom Cochran, Ron Pfahl, and Ed Stone. Five returning golfers will bolster next year's squad.



Veteran golfer Bob Blazek tees off at #2 at Madison.





Tom Cochran steadies his aim for an important putt.

TRACK RECORDS FALL AT FEET

STANDING: Mr. Strode, L. Bierwirth, D. Wistehuff, T. Leach, J. Schwindenhammer, N. Reece, D. Papendick, D. Bruce, J. Segler, J. Potts, L. Gilmore, M. Clemens, F. Horn, B. Kidd, D. Sanders, R. Campen, G. Hoerl, D. Schultz, R. DeTremp, E. Dunham, E. Rowley, Mr. Gire. KNEELING: M. Peters, H. Pierson, R. Case, J. Kendall, L. Meier, R. Springer, W. Barnett, J. Hawkins, G. Sullivan, R. Rohn.

Jerry Schwindenhammer displays the form he used in the high hurdles to earn his Rocket letter.

Dale Schultz struggles desperately to beat his competitor in the District meet at Peoria Stadium.

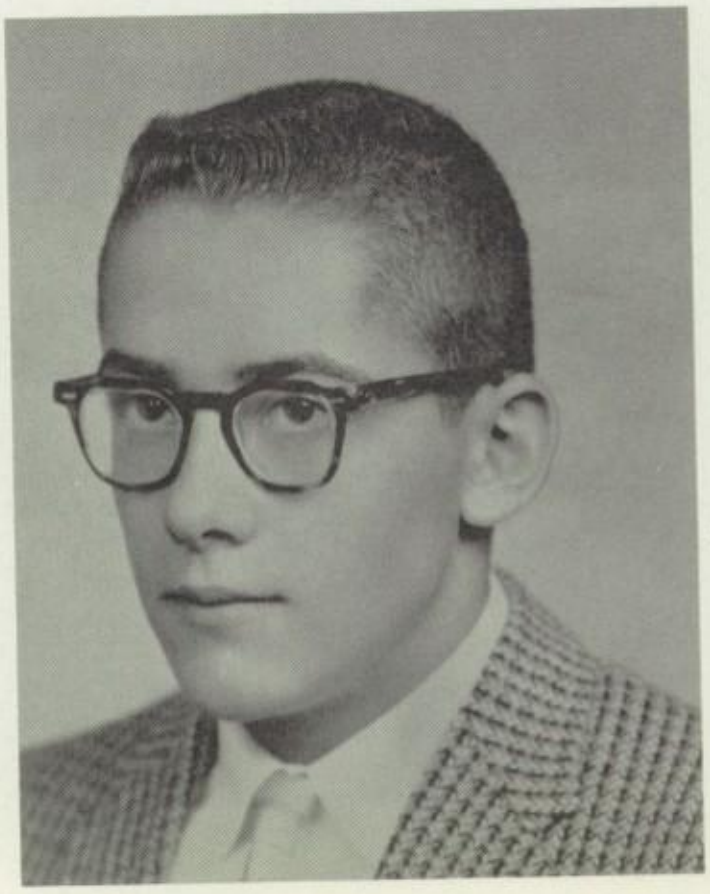
OF SPEEDY ROCKET CINDERMEN

Gary Hoerl is shown warming up with the discus before the Mid-State Eight meet begins.

Adding push and stretch to his long frame, Fred Horn glides over the high jump bar with ease.

This year's track team was paced by several individual performers. Three records were broken, the first being the 880-yard relay. The relay team, consisting of Bill Kidd, Larry Bierwirth, Don Bruce, and Dwight Wistehuff, broke the old record of 1:36.1 with a run of 1:33.6. The second record to fall was the 220-yard dash. The old record of 23.1 was broken by Junior Dwight Wistehuff (22.9), and Sophomore Don Bruce (22.8). The last record, the 100-yard dash, was topped by Bill Kidd and Dwight Wistehuff. They both improved the old time of 10.4 with sprints of 10.3.

Other consistent scorers were: John Segler in the broad jump and shot put; Dale Schultz in the 880-yard run and the mile; Captain Earl Dunham in the pole vault and mile; Jerry Schwindenhammer in the high and low hurdles; and Gary Hoerl in the discus and high jump.



Because of his consistent scoring in the pole vault and mile run, Earl Dunham was chosen captain by his teammates.

SENIORS SHOW MIXED EMOTIONS

Members of the class of 1960 are all smiles as they pose for their official class picture.

These Senior boys nervously await the first strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" which will begin one of the most important occasions in their lives, Graduation. Marshall, Steve Stevens, stands ready to escort them to their positions of honor.

At the end of the processional, the seniors stand ready for the graduation ceremony that marks the last official gathering of their class.

AS 155 BID FAREWELL TO LCHS

Seniors solemnly file into their seats during the Baccalaureate processional. Rev. David Jefford delivered the inspiring address challenging the graduates to place God first in their lives.

Forty-four seniors made their final appearance with the choir in the Baccalaureate service. Under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Krumpe, they sang "Creation" and "Almighty God."

White gladioli flank the speaker's platform as Rev. W. E Bartell reads the Scripture to the graduates, their parents, and friends. Invocation and Benediction were given by Rev. Ben S. Haddick.

"THE RIVER" UNVEILED AS THEME

Yearbook's Paul Springer does one of his favorite monologues for the Amulet staff.

The Amulet staff had their "Sneak Preview" of the 1960 edition at a staff banquet at Shady Oaks on May 17th.

The Yearbook Dedication assembly starred Mrs. Elizabeth Krumpe in "This Is Your Life." Assisting in the presentation assembly were: Carl Krumpe, Helen Herzog, Fritz Millard, Mike Zimmerman, Betty Burk, and several L.C.H.S. students.

"Hey, Buddy! Sign my yearbook, will you?" asks Judy McGee as she joins the autograph hunters on Amulet day. Other students busily add their "Best Wishes" and "Good Luck" to fellow classmates' yearbooks.
